BILLS ON SECOND READING

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The Senate proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 785, entitled:

An Act to amend section fifty and section two hundred and twenty as amended of the act approved the second day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five (Pamphlet Laws four hundred forty-eight) entitled "An act relating to fish and amending revising consolidating and changing the law relating to fish in the inland waters and the boundary lakes and boundary rivers of the Commonwealth" by permitting and regulating the use of eel chutes

Whereas The eel (Anguilla rotsrata) is a catadromous fish going down stream in the fall of the year to spawn in the depths of the ocean and

Whereas It does not feed nor bite at bait while on its downward migration and therefore cannot be caught by any device now legal in Pennsylvania and

Whereas After having left our streams the same eels never return to them thus resulting in a permanent economic loss to our citizens and

Whereas The eels which go with legal protection down our streams and are caught by fishermen in other staets and regions below Pennsylvania are shipped back to us at high prices and

Whereas To permit our own fishermen to catch them while on their downward migrations would provide food and occupation for many of our citizens therefore

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That section fifty of the act approved the second day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five (Pamphlet Laws four hundred forty-eight) entitled "An act relating to fish and amending revising consolidating and changing the law relating to fish in the inland waters and the boundary lakes and boundary rivers of the Commonwealth" is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 50 DEVICES TO CATCH GAME-FISH AND BAIT-FISH No person shall use any device means or method whatsoever except as in this article otherwise provided for taking fish from the waters within this Commonwealth except the following that is to say for

(a) Game fish two rods and two lines and one hand line with not more than three hooks attached to either line

(b) Bait-fish two rods and two lines with not more than three hooks attached to each line a dip net or minnow seine not over four feet square or four feet in diameter a minnow trap with not more than one opening which shall not exceed one inch in diameter The rods hooks and lines must be under the immediate control of the person using the same

(c) Eels in rivers of this Commonwealth in addition to such rods and lines eel chutes from the first day of August to the last day of November in each year Sundays excepted but only from four o'clock in the afternoon to eight o'clock in the morning on such days when a special license therefor in addition to the regular fishing license has been first secured Eel chutes to be lawful shall not have any wings of netting of any kind or any cloth or wire netting but shall be constructed of wooden slats or lath which shall not be closer than one-half inch in the bottom Eel chutes shall not be more than five feet long and the width of entrance of an eel chute shall not be more than ten feet A metal tag issued at the time the special license is secured shall be securely fastened to the eel chute in a conspicuous place

No wing walls of stone or other material shall be constructed for more than three-fourths of the distance across any river The heads of no two wing walls when constructed side by side shall be closer together than a distance of twenty feet

All eel chutes must be kept free of rubbish and all game fish found therein must be immediately returned to the water of the river uninjured

During the hours of each day and on Sunday when the operation and use of eel chutes is not legal under this section a portion of the bottoms of such chutes shall be removed to facilitate the unobstructed passage of fishes

Section 2 That section two hundred and twenty of said act which was amended by section one of the act approved the ninth day of April one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws four hundred fifty-one) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 220 RESIDENT FISHING LICENSE FEES For the purposes of this article every person sixteen years of age and upward upon application to any county treasurer within the Commonwealth or to the Department of Revenue and the presentation of proof that he has been a bona fide resident of this Comomnwealth for a period of thirty days preceding his application and was born in the United States or was fully naturalized under the laws of the United States shall upon the payment to the county treasurer or the Department of Revenue of a license fee of one dollar and fifty cents for the use of the Commonwealth and in the event that the license is issued by a county treasurer a fee of ten cents for the use of the county treasurer be entitled to the license herein referred to as "A resident fishing license"

Upon the making of an application by any person to the Department or county treasurer for a special license to catch eels by the use and operation of eel chutes and the payment of a fee of one dollar for the use of the Commonwealth and ten cents for the use of the county treasurer where application is made to him such person shall be entitled to a special eel chute license and a special metal tag which shall give him the right to use and operate an eel chute in the Susquehanna River below the northern boundary of Berwick on the north branch below the bridge at the Northumberland-Lycoming County line on the west branch and in the Delaware River below Easton in accordance with the provisions of this act

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to.

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

Senate Bill No. 598, entitled:

An Act to amend sections one hundred and sixty-four, one hundred and sixty-five, and one hundred and sixty-six of the act, approved the thirty-first day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty (P. L. 382), entitled "An act to consolidate, revise and amend the penal laws of this Commonwealth," by making unlawful the counterfeiting, altering and uttering of scrip and possession of materials for falsely making the same.

Whereupon,

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Edward C. Shannon) in the presence of the Senate signed the same.

RECESS

Mr. SORDONI. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now take a recess for ten minutes.

Mr. ARMSTRONG. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

AFTER RECESS

The PRESIDENT. The time of recess having elapsed, the Senate will be in order.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. SCOTT. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Centre, Mr. Scott, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. SCOTT. Mr. President and members of the Senate: Again last night the Governor of this Commonwealth accused members of the Legislature of putting needless difficulties in the way of getting relief for the unemployed and their families. "For the last month," he said in his speech to this body, "the fight to guard Pennsylvanians against starvation has left me little or no time for anything else."

The truth is, Mr. President and members of the Senate, that the greatest single hindrance in the path of relief for the unemployed has been and is Gifford Pinchot, Governor of Pennsylvania. The truth is that the greatest single hindrance in the path of corrective legislation, not only during the present session but others since the beginning of his term, is and has been Gifford Pinchot. He has taken a leaf from the story of the bad boy and smeared jam on the Legislature's fingers. He has dropped cookie crumbs in the legislative corner and behind his continual cry of "Wolf! Wolf!" is the story of his own obstinacy, and his desire to advance his own personal political interests.

Not long ago a conference of leaders of the Republican Organization agreed unanimously that every penny of the $14,000,000 received from the Dorrance estate could be appropriated for unemployment relief. In conference with Governor Pinchot, later, it was suggested that $10,000,000 of that Dorrance money be devoted to relief.

But the Governor said no. He intimated that his budget officer was probably mistaken as to possible revenues for the coming biennium. It was his hope that we would give him authority to spend that $14,000,000 as he saw fit. But so insistent were his conferes that finally, and under heaviest pressure, he agreed to permit appropriation of $5,000,000 of Dorrance money. And that has been done. But today $9,000,000 remains inactive in the State Treasury, awaiting the Executive's designs during the biennium which begins June 1.

Mr. President and members of the Senate, since we came to Harrisburg in January we have been subjected to the chronic scoldings of Governor Pinchot. He is not willing to admit that a member of the Legislature has a single duty or responsibility to the people of Pennsylvania. We are answerable only to him. Not long ago in one of his Wednesday essays he went out of his way to denounce Adolf Hitler, German dictator. But the truth is that wrapped in the package which we know as Gifford Pinchot are all of the arrogance, self-will and danger of Adolf Hitler. He can be satisfied with nothing less than supreme power.

That was evident prior to the Regular Session of 1931, when he tried to move heaven and earth in his effort to name the President Pro Tempore of the Senate. It was true in the Spring of 1930, when he sought the election of the lamented Van Brown as Chairman of the Republican State Committee. It was true several weeks ago, when by means known only to those who attended the seance, he forced the head of his Highway Department to sign a letter containing an abject reversal of testimony presented by the Highway Secretary before a legislative committee.

Mr. President, it was true again yesterday, when the Secretary to the Governor and a former Secretary to the Governor, who is now a Public Service Commissioner, moved among members of this body in an effort to line up sufficient votes to discharge the Committee on Executive Nominations from further consideration of the Governor's nomination of Clyde L. King as a member of the Public Service Commission.

I have all the sympathy in the world for Dr. King. It is common knowledge that he was practically forced by the Governor to accept the position he now holds. Because of his years of friendship for Gifford Pinchot he finally agreed to resign his place as Secretary of Revenue, and take the job he now fills so well.

All of us remember the Governor's fulsome words of praise when he appointed Dr. King. His eulogy was far more glowing even than that he accorded his former secretary, Mr. Stahlnecker. And if what the Governor said was true then, it is true now. Men of Dr. King's caliber do not change over night. They run true to form.

Undoubtedly, the Governor's present antagonism to Dr. King comes from the fact that Dr. King as Chairman of the Public Service Commission refuses to be bulldozed or bullied. Gifford Pinchot does not like that sort of man. And last night when he hung floral horseshoes on the shoulders of Messrs. Woodruff, Gruenberg, Goodnough and Stahlnecker I wondered what he would say if, after confirmation by this body, they exhibited the independence of thought and deed that has distinguished Dr. King. I tell you, Mr. President, that the Governor has simply chosen Dr. King as a "whipping boy," and his denunciation, as the Chairman has said, is only the first gun in his newest factional fight.

It is plain to me that you and I, and all of us, are pawns in the Governor's various games. Fortunately the people of Pennsylvania are beginning to sense the truth. But we will not receive the blessings of the Governor until we permit him to tell us who are to be Public Service Commissioners, how much money is to be spent for relief, how many miles of rural highways are to be improved, how we must draw our beer and how much is to be charged for it. Not until we, the representatives of the people, abandon all independence and disavow every duty to our constituents will Simon Legree be good to us.

Mr. President, it is time to end this bickering and tomfoolery, the annoyance and uncertainty that have characterized this session. It is time that the waste of money cease—and by that I mean the prodigious daily cost of this session. It is time that members of Senate and House enact the legislation they deem necessary, and go home. It is time to lay on the Governor's desk the bills we know are needed.

The executive refuses to listen to us. He tells us that we must do as he says, or do nothing. I for one am in favor of winding up the affairs of this legislative session as we know the people of Pennsylvania demand, and not as we are directed to do by Gifford Pinchot.

I call your attention to Section 1 of Article 2 of the Constitution of Pennsylvania:

> "The legislative power of this Commonwealth shall be invested in a General Assembly which shall consist of a Senate and House of Representatives."

Mr. President and members of the Senate, let us not abandon that power.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor of the Commonwealth, which was read as follows:

APPROVAL OF SENATE BILL No. 369

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office Harrisburg, April 19, 1933.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

I have the honor to inform you that I have this day approved and signed Senate Bill No. 369, Printer's No. 64, entitled "An Act to amend section one of the act approved the twenty-first day of March one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws thirty-seven) entitled 'An act for the compensation by counties of persons detained as material witnesses in criminal prosecution' reducing the compensation of detained witnesses.'"

GIFFORD PINCHOT.

Also from the Committee on Federal Relations reported as committed, the following Resolution, which was laid on the table:

CONGRESS MEMORIALIZED TO ENACT LEGISLATION WHICH WILL EQUALIZE THE BURDEN OF TAXATION BETWEEN RIVER AND RAILROAD TRANSPORTATION

In the House of Representatives, January 16, 1933.

Whereas, In many cases boats on rivers are operated in open competition with railroad transportation, and

Whereas, Boats so operated are not compelled to maintain rights of way in the manner required of railroads and as a consequence can offer lower rates for transportation, and

Whereas, The belief prevails that river transportation is not subjected to a burden of Federal and State taxation equal to that imposed on railroads, and

Whereas, Railroad transportation is essential to the development of the commerce and business of the United States, and

Whereas, River transportation is in most instances a matter of interstate commerce over which the Federal Government has control, therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That the General Assembly memorialize Congress of the United States to enact legislation which will equalize the burden of taxation between river and railroad transportation in order to enable railroads to secure a fair share of the business

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be forwarded by the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives to the President of the Senate and Speaker of the House of Representatives of the United States.

Mr. NORTON. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. SORDONI, from the Committee on Banks and Building and Loan Associations, re-reported as amended, Senate Bill No. 446, entitled:

An Act relating to the business of banking and to the exercise of fiduciary powers by corporations; providing for the organization of banking corporations, with or without fiduciary powers, including the conversion of national banks into state banks, and for the licensing of private bankers; defining the rights, powers, duties, liabilities, and immunities of such corporations, of existent corporations authorized to engage in a banking business, with or without fiduciary powers of private bankers, and of the officers, directors, trustees, shareholders, attorneys,, and other employes of all such corporations or private bankers, or of affiliated corporations, associations, or persons; restricting the exercise of banking powers by any other corporation, association, or person, and of fiduciary powers by any other corporation; conferring powers and imposing duties upon the courts, prothonotaries, recorders of deeds, and certain State departments, commissions, and officers; imposing penalties; and repealing certain acts and parts of acts.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. SORDONI. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Luzerne, Mr. Sordoni, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. SORDONI. When the 1931 Legislature appropriated a fund for the revision of the Banking Laws, it, of course, could not have foreseen the serious banking trouble which would set in the following October and which has required an intensive study and serious reconsideration of the whole structure of banking supervision and regulation.

As Chairman of your Banking Committee I full realized the responsibilities that were placed upon my shoulders and at times I have been seriously worried as to the outcome. However, I am pleased beyond words to report that the Codes are now ready to be enacted into law and I hope they will be on the Governor's desk by the end of the week and that he will forthwith sign them.

The Banking Code, as now reported, represents an enormous amount of research work and study ably done by the Attorney General and his assistants and the Secretary of Banking and his staff, over a long period. It also represents a large amount of constructive study and criticism by representative bankers from all parts of the State and their attorneys. Long conferences have been held between these groups, presided over by the Chairman of your Banking Committee and the Chairman of the similar House Committee. The discussion of points upon which there were differences of opinion was conducted in an admirable spirit of co-operation and compromise and to the credit of all—there were relatively few points not substantially agreed upon—considering all the difficulties and the wide range of the subject attempted to be covered. This greatly aided the work of the committee and if it had not been for the willing sacrifice by all of personal considerations of sleep and rest, necessitated by literally day and night work, this job could not have been accomplished in the limited time since the introduction of this Code. This is easily understood when it is realized that both governmental departments, as well as the bankers, during practically this whole time, have been going through a period of unprecedented strain. It must also be considered that every one of the several previous efforts to codify and revise the banking laws of Pennsylvania have failed because it became impossible to harmonize and compromise all the divergent interests and problems involved.

The new Code represents many important improvements over the present law for the protection of the public, depositors and stockholders. I shall refer to the more important changes:

1. Existing law imposes no limitations upon loans to a single corporation or individual if they are not officers or directors of the institution. The Code limits such loans very strictly unless secured by obligations of the United States or the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania or the political subdivisions thereof.

2. Loans to directors are limited to 10% of the capital and surplus of the institution, and unsecured loans to officers are limited to $1,000, and as to both classes additional safeguards have been provided.

3. Existing law imposes no limitation upon the investment in stocks by a bank or trust company other than stock of their own institution. The Code limits new investments in stocks to 25% of capital and surplus except as to the stocks of other regulated banks or trust companies.

4. Existing law contains no limitation upon the sale of securities or other assets held by the commercial department of a bank or trust company to its own trust department. This has resulted in abuses which it is hoped will be prevented by the provisions of the Code prohibiting such sales, except in special cases under the regulations therein provided.

5. Existing law provides no limitation upon loans by a banking institution to affiliated corporations, associations, etc. The Code provides for the incorporation into it of such definition of affiliates as may hereafter be adopted by Act of Congress, and the Department Code provides for the examination and regulation thereof to the same extent, as to State banks, as Congress shall provide as to national banks and members of the Federal Reserve System. This will result in making the State Act substantially identical with the Federal statute and impose no less and no greater burdens upon State banks than those which may be imposed upon the national banks.

6. The prohibition of existing law against the establishment of branch banks has resulted in many communities throughout the State being without banking facilities, and, as to the most of them, without hope of securing banking facilities in the near future unless the law is changed. The Code permits branch banks in communities where there are no adequate banking facilities, restricting the establishment thereof to counties contiguous to the county where the main office of the principal banking institution is located; and then only with the approval of the Secretary of Banking. There is further provision for an appeal to the Courts from an approval by the Secretary of Banking of the establishment of a branch bank, if it is believed by the community that the banking facilities are adequate for its needs without such branch bank.

7. The Code permits the issuance of preferred stock in line with the policy of the Federal Government, and extends the provisions of the Shapiro Act recently passed. This is important to assist in obtaining additional capital for closed banks, as well as open banks whose capital should be increased to serve the public.

8. Capital and surplus requirements have been increased, and institutions with too little will be required to build them up out of earnings.

9. The Code prevents the establishment of any new unincorporated or private banks and continues under supervision and regulation all such banks established since 1904. Provisisions of the present law exempting from regulation those private banks that have been continuously in business in the same locality for at least seven years prior to the Act of June 19, 1911, now almost 30 years, have not been changed. This exemption now applies to relatively few old established businesses, which have been built up and continued under the present law. The unlimited liability of each of their partners for all deposits, as distinguished from the limited liability of a corporation, was no doubt the reason for the distinction drawn by the Act of 1911, the constitutionality of which has been upheld by the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

The Banking Code, with its companion piece, the Department of Banking Code, represents an important step forward for the protection of depositors and stockholders in open banks, as well as aiding the re-organization or liquidation of banks which have had to close or are opened only under restrictions. In throwing these additional safeguards around banks every effort has been made to avoid undue interference with the ability of these institutions to meet the credit needs of the State and play every sound part in financing industry and agriculture.

The Codes chart the path for sounder and more conservative banking and the increased powers given the Department of Banking should make more difficult unsound or improper practices in the future.

Mr. PRESIDENT, and gentleman of the Senate, few, except those directly involved, can possibly ralize the burden that has been thrown on the shoulders of Dr. Gordon by the banking problems of the past year and a half, and what untiring effort has been necessary to administer the assets of closed banks as well as supervise the open banks. These jobs have, in my opinion, been the most difficult ever asisgned to a cabinet officer of this Commonwealth in time of peace; and to have the burden of a general revision of all the banking laws at the same time has represented an almost impossible task.

In conclusion, I desire to compliment and thank Attorney General Schnader and his assistants and Dr. Gordon and his assistants for the help they have given the Committee in the study and revision of these Codes.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. SALUS, from the Committee on Law and Order, reported as amended, Senate Bill No. 1360 (House Bill No. 1087), entitled:

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

WEDNESDAY, April 19, 1933.

The House met at 11.00 o'clock A. M.
The SPEAKER (Grover C. Talbot) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. George F. Conner, offered the following prayer:

Dear Lord God, we thank Thee that another day finds us at our Post ready for the toils and care which my come to us in the line of duty.

We thank Thee for the consecrated talents, and the conscientious efforts of the Ladies and Gentlemen of this General Assembly, in their endeavors to do their full duty as Representatives.

We thank Thee that this Legislature is not what some would have the people believe—A petty turmoil of sound and fury signifying nothing—Rather, it has been and continues to be an honest effort of brave and simple men and women, to meet the overwhelming demands of the Commonwealth's multitudenous interests.

Continue to add Thy blessings, until the fruition of these weeks of labor shall be fully realized. For Thy glory. Amen.

RESOLUTION

DECLARING INTENTION TO TAX BREWED, MALT AND VINOUS BEVERAGES

Mr. JONES offered a resolution and asked unanimous consent for its immediate consideration.

The resolution was twice read by the Clerk as follows:

In the House of Representatives, April 19, 1933.

Whereas, The failure to finally enact legislation imposing a tax on malt and vinous beverages is resulting in the loss of a large amount of revenue to the State; and

Whereas, The continued honest disagreements as to the form of legislation relating to the regulation and taxation of these beverages unduly delays the day when these new revenues will be made available; therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That the General Assembly hereby declares its intention that the State tax on brewed, malt, vinous and fruit juice beverage legalized by Act of Congress of the United States, shall be as follows: On brewed and malt beverages, one dollar and twenty-four cents ($1.24) a barrel, or equivalent; and on vinous and fruit juice beverages, three cents (3c) per gallon;

Resolved, That the General Assembly hereby declares its intention that the law imposing said tax when enacted, will be made retroactive to the date when this resolution becomes effective by approval by the Governor.

The SPEAKER. Will the House give its unanimous consent for the immediate consideration of the resolution? Are there objections?

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I object.

The SPEAKER. The Chair hears objection and consent is not granted.

The resolution lies over for printing.

MOTION TO SUSPEND RULES

Mr. JONES. Mr. Speaker, I move that we suspend the rules on this resolution.

Mr. HERMANSEN. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The SPEAKER. The question is on the motion of the gentleman from Luzerne, Mr. Jones, seconded by the gentleman from Luzerne, Mr. Hermansen, that the rules be suspended for the specific purpose of considering the resolution which was read by the Clerk. The rule sought to be suspended is Rule 84 of the House and the motion is made pursuant to Rule 88, alteration or suspension of rules. The Chair will read Rule 88 for the information of the House:

"Any rule of the House may be suspended at any time for a specific purpose by a majority vote of the members elect; after the accomplishment of which purpose the rule shall remain in force as before."

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, you are now about to vote on a motion to suspend the rules of the House for the purpose of voting on a resolution.

Nothing more important could come before you than this motion.

If the rules of this House shall be suspended in the closing days of the session, it simply means that all business will run riot.

There is no urgent necessity to suspend the rules.

This House has passed a tax measure, and that tax measure can be approved or disapproved.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. JOHN J. KANE. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Allegheny will state his point of order.

Mr. JOHN J. KANE. Mr. Speaker, are we discussing the suspension of the rule or is it a question of tax measure?

The SPEAKER. The Chair is of the opinion that the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sowers, is giving his reasons why the rules should not be suspended.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I do not want to go into detail as to the issues raised, but in a very brief way I shall put the cards on the table, and then you can determine whether you want to suspend the rules.

The question that is involved here is whether judges, county treasurers or commissioners shall issue licenses. Those things are only subterfuges.

The question is whether chain stores should have licenses——

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. EROE. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Lawrence will state his point of order.

Mr. EROE. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman is not discussing the motion.

The SPEAKER. The Chair is still of the opinion that the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sowers, is presenting his reasons why the rule should not be suspended. The point of order, in the opinion of the Chair, is not well taken.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the issue is whether chain stores shall distribute intoxicating liquor. If this House agrees to a tax bill without more regulations, there never will be regulations, and everybody, chain stores in particular, will be selling liquor.

I ask the members of the House not to suspend these rules, in order to accomplish the purpose of letting the chain stores sell beer, and I ask you for this reason also, that if the beer tax is not joined to regulations, then the Governor will approve a tax alone and the State will have beer in every little nook and corner. I know that my constituents do not want this to happen and I believe yours do not want it to happen.

I ask you to vote down this resolution.

Mr. JONES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the gentleman from Philadelphia is just trying to camouflage the real purpose of this resolution.

This resolution does not provide anything except to notify the brewers of Pennsylvania when the beer bill is finally enacted into law and signed by the Governor that they will have to pay the tax on the brew from the time that this resolution is signed by the Governor.

If the Governor vetoes the beer bill he has before him now, and we expect to be going home in a couple of weeks, and if the bill is declared unconstitutional we may be here for a month yet, and every day that we delay passing this resolution, of course, the State of Pennsylvania will lose ten thousand dollars in revenue. For the life of me I cannot see why anybody at this time would oppose ten thousand dollars revenue for the State in this depression.

Mr. LENAHAN. Mr. Speaker, may I interrogate the gentleman from Luzerne, Mr. Jones?

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Luzerne, Mr. Jones, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. JONES. Gladly, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. LENAHAN. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman from Luzerne state to this House, the way he voted on the Sowers-Conner bill?

Mr. JONES. "No," Mr. Speaker.

Mr. LENAHAN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I agree with the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sowers, that this bill is nothing more than a subterfuge. I believe it is sponsored by some special interests who have in mind the destruction and the effect of the bill already passed by this House.

If those special interests desire to secure revenue from taxation of brew, there is ample opportunity to sign this bill and thereby pour into the coffers of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania thousands and thousands of dollars which we are now losing as a result of the inactivity on the part of the Executive Department of this Commonwealth. I, therefore, ask you, members of this House, not to be swayed by the subterfuge contained in this resolution. I ask the members of this House to vote against any motion that has for its purpose at this time the suspension of the rules of this House.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, may I interrogate the gentleman from Luzerne, Mr. Jones.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Luzerne, Mr. Jones, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. JONES. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, is the gentleman aware of the fact that this House, this Legislature, has passed a beer bill?

Mr. JONES. Yes, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, the preamble of this resolution reads as follows: "The failure to finally enact legislation imposing a tax on malt and vinous beverages is resulting in the loss of a large amount of revenue to the State." That is an incorrect statement, is it not?

Mr. JONES. No, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, may I not ask the gentleman if it does not say here, "that the failure to finally enact legislation." Has not this legislature enacted legislation?

Mr. JONES. It does not say "this legislature" if you will notice.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I will read from this resolution "the failure to finally enact legislation."

Mr. JONES. Mr. Speaker, "to finally."

Mr. WITKIN. Has no tthis House enacted legislation may I ask the gentleman, Mr. Speaker?

Mr. JONES. The resolution does not say "this House." We thought that probably you would bring up that particular question. We had that chucked out of it.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I call the gentleman's attention to the fact that we have not chucked anything out of it. What you say here is that this Legislature has failed finally to enact legislation. This Legislature, the gentleman will agree with me, has caused to be enacted insofar as its powers are concerned a beer revenue bill that is now on the Governor's desk. That is correct, is it not?

Mr. JONES. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Philadelphia is just arguing about something that is not in the resolution. When we say "to finally" it is not finally enacted until signed by the Governor. The gentleman will admit that.

The SPEAKER. Is the gentleman from Luzerne interrogating the gentleman from Philadelphia?

Mr. JONES. I think so, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman admit that this Legislature has done all in its power, insofar as its powers are concerned, to put on the Governor's desk a beer bill that carries with it a revenue? Will the gentleman please answer "yes" or "no"?

Mr. JONES. No, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman mean by his answer that he does not know that the Legislature has passed the Sowers-Conner bill?

Mr. JONES. Mr. Speaker, I know that they have passed the Sowers-Conner bill.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman know where it is now?

Mr. JONES. On the Governor's desk, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman know whether that bill provides for revenue or not?

Mr. JONES. It does, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, therefore, the gentleman does know that there is now a revenue bill passed by this Legislature on the Governor's desk?

Mr. JONES. I do, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. WITKIN. I am glad, Mr. Speaker, that the gentleman knows something.

Mr. JONES. Mr. Speaker, if I didn't know anything more than the gentleman did——

The SPEAKER. The Chair must insist that no personalities be injected into the interrogation.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, may I say to the gentleman from Luzerne that my comment was in jest and facetious and not meant in any way to offend him.

The SPEAKER. The Chair hopes that the gentleman from Luzerne will not take the remark seriously.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman know that we cannot impose taxation by resolution but only by a bill?

Mr. JONES. Right.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, therefore, when the gentleman in this resolution provided that the tax shall be retroactive did the gentleman not know that this resolution cannot make that a fact?

Mr. JONES. I know that it can, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I am just going to take up two minutes of your time. I am going to ask you to vote not to suspend any rules, for the simple reason that we have done, insofar as our power lies, all that we could do.

There is now a tax raising measure on the Governor's desk. He may either ask that it be recalled, and in that manner compromise the situation or he may sign it, or he may veto it, but this Legislature has enacted such an act, which is a revenue raising act.

This resolution has facts in it, members of the House, that are incorrect. It says that we have failed finally to enact such legislation. I say to you that we have no right to move to suspend the rules in order to pass a resolution that says that we have failed to do something that we have done. Therefore, you should not so vote.

I also call your attention to the fact that a resolution cannot impose taxation, and it is folly for the gentleman from Luzerne to endeavor to pass this resolution and to suspend the rules of the House for that purpose, when he knows, you know and we all know that we cannot impose taxation by resolution, but only by a bill.

I take it from your applause that you want me to keep my word, and only talk for two minutes, and I will ask you not to suspend the rules in my two minutes here, and then I will sit down.

Mr. JOHN J. KANE. Mr. Speaker as a member of the House, who voted against the Sowers beer bill, I desired during that debate to make a few statements, but as a result of the debate being stopped by the previous question I was prevented from so doing.

I had intended to go along and not take up the time of this House, but I am going to make a statement and I am going to say that insofar as the Sowers bill is concerned, it is my opinion, whether it meets with the approval of the legal genius, the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Witkin, or not—

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will not interject personalities in his discussion. Therefore, his statement will be withdraw so far as the record is concerned.

Mr. JOHN J. KANE. Mr. Speaker, when I voted against the Sowers bill, I voted so for the reason that I did not believe that the bill, as it was drafted and presented to this House was going to meet with the constitutional provisions, namely, that we could not put a regulation and a revenue measure into the same act.

I voted against it because I did not believe that we should put the power of licensing the applicants in the hands of the court.

I do believe now and I did believe then that the State of Pennsylvania should get every cent of tax that it is possible to get, whether we get it through a resolution or whether we get it through an act. We should get it from the brewers, and this House should not delay any action that will bring that revenue into the State of Pennsylvania. In my opinion, all that is going on here is an attempt to prevent the collection of a beer tax from the brewers of Pennsylvania.

I think that everybody here will agree, if he tells the truth about the situation, that the people back home want to know whether or not we are going to put a tax on beer. If we cannot do it and we know we cannot do it by the Sowers bill, then I think it is the duty of this House before we adjourn to take some kind of action to effect the collection of a tax on beer, and thus put this State in a position where it can use the tax to feed the people of Pennsylvania. That is the proposition that we have to consider. It is one of the sources of revenue from which we can get money to feed the people, and it is agreed by all the political factions in the State of Pennsylvania that we are not doing anything about it. I think that we can do it by a resolution or can do it by an act, but let us do it.

There are two bills in committee that will get that revenue. If we cannot do it by resolution there are two bills in committee that will put a tax on beer.

I think it is the duty of the members of this House to support something so that we can feed the people and at the same time equitably protect the brewers of Pennsylvania.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, did I understand the Chair to rule that the gentleman from Philadelphia was not a legal genius?

The SPEAKER. The Chair is of the opinion that the question of the gentleman, talking under a question of personal privilege, is entirely out of order, and so rules.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. Jones and Mr. J. Kane and were as follows:

BILLS ON FIRST READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the first reading and consideration of House Bill No. 175, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the Department of Military Affairs for payment of property damages occasioned by a horse, the property of the Federal Government, issued to, and in possession of the National Guard of Pennsylvania.

And said bill having been read at length the first time,

Ordered, To be laid aside for second reading.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the first reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1271, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the Board of Finance and Revenue for the payment of certain moral claims of the Commonwealth.

And said bill having been read at length the first time,

Ordered, To be laid aside for second reading.

STATEMENT BY Mr. McELWEE

Mr. McELWEE. Mr. Speaker, and members of the House, I believe the Speaker and members of this House are entitled to know why I have allowed House Bill No. 89 to be passed over thus far and have not called it up. I ask the indulgence of the House to permit me to state my reasons.

It is admitted that House Bill No. 89 proposes a radical departure from the beaten path in the matter of taxation. I am convinced that justice demands a radical departure; but I likewise am convinced that both prudence and good statemanship require care and deep study before we launch this Commonwealth upon untried seas or try to lead it through an unblazed wilderness.

In the twenty-five years or more that I have had to do with problems of taxation, I have observed some basic wrongs. I have seen the owner of a house rent it for $480 per year and pay two hundred dollars annual taxes upon it; while his tenant, who had an annual income of $5,000, and no real estate, paid a per capita school tax of $6; and other taxes for the support of local government of less than $4.

It is true that real estate pays more than its share of local taxation. Taxes not only are too high but they are not equitably distributed.

The term "potential income" of real estate is new in legislation. Some have said that even the thought is new. Be that as it may, I believe that in a combination of it and an actual income as a basis for county rates and levies lies the solution of our problem. In most boroughs and townships the basis of taxation for county rates and levies is also the basis for school and borough or township taxes. Therefore, if that basis is right, all these taxes are right.

Under the ancient Hebrew theocracy, divinely inspired and pronounced and instituted by Moses, the tithe, which was a form of taxation, was based, not on the market value of the real estate holdings, but upon the income thereof, even though that income might be "mint and annis."

If everybody lived upon his own land and cultivated it as he should, and his income was directly or indirectly the income of that land, such income would form a fair basis for taxation. Such is not the case. My county being a border county, we have large tracts of land owned by persons who reside in Ohio. No doubt all other counties have the same situation, differing only in the name of the foreign state. The increment of value brought about by the proper use of the money raised by taxation enures to the owner of the land and not to the tenant. Therefore to take all taxes off real estate and place them wholly upon the incomes of the persons residing in the municipal sub-division would not be fair.

Again, we have large tracts of land adjacent to cities or industrial plants that are growing up in briars and weeds and, due to neglect, yield no income. These tracts have been bought up as speculations in the hope that, as the city grows, or the industrial plants developes, the land will become very valuable. This land has a "potential income" but it has no actual income, and, therefore, to tax only the actual income of land would be playing into the hand of the speculator who has set about to skim the cream off the milk of progress that the efforts of other men have produced. To let these people go scot free would not be fair.

I am allowing this bill to stay on the calendar without being voted upon by the House, because I want every member to study this bill with great care. I do not claim to know everything. Only by a full and complete study of this problem by all the members can a proper law be prepared and enacted. I, therefore, want to keep this bill before you as long as I can, in order that you may recognize its merits, if it has any, and detect and correct the faults that it doubtless has. It may be too big a problem to be solved at this Session

I think it is a good bill and a long step in the right direction.

NAYS—3

Boyd,	Forrest,	Furman,	Zimmerman,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed it without amendments.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Mr. HUTTON asked and obtained unanimous consent to call up out of order House Bill No. 2162, Senate Bill No. 699, Printer's No. 338, on page 37 of today's calendar, bills on third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2162 (Senate Bill No. 699), entitled:

An Act to amend clause five of section three of the act approved the thirteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and nine (Pamphlet Laws five hundred twenty) entitled "An act relating to food defining food providing for the protection of the public health and the prevention of fraud and deception by prohibiting the manufacture or sale the offering for sale or exposing for sale or the having in possession with intent to sell of unadulterated misbranded or deleterious foods prescribing certain duties of the Dairy and Food Commissioner in reference thereto and providing penalties for the violation thereof" as amended further regulating the use of sulphur dioxide in the preparation of dried fruits and molasses.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. HUTTON. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer amendments at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk for information.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend title, page 1, third line from the end, by inserting after the word "amended" the following: "permittting the use of harmless colors in fruits used in fruit cake, and."

Amend Section 1, page 2, line 29, by inserting after the part-word "fectionery" the following: "or in fruits used in fruit cake."

Amend Section 1, page 3, line 17, by striking out the words and figures "fifteen hundred (1500)" and inserting in lieu thereof: "twenty-five hundred (2500)."

Amend Section 1, page 3, line 24, by striking out with light-faced brackets the word "benzoates" and inserting in lieu thereof: "benzoate."

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the insertion of the amendments at this time? Is there objection? The Chair hears none and the amendments will be inserted in accordance with the instructions of the House.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended lie over for printing.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1210 (Senate Bill No. 325), entitled:

A Supplement to the act approved the third day of April, one thousand nine hundred and three (P. L. 137), entitled "An act regulating the confinement of children, under the age of sixteen years, awaiting trial"; providing for the management of houses of detention for juveniles in counties of the second class, imposing expense in connection therewith on the county and permitting and authorizing the county commissioners thereof to appropriate money or issue bonds for the purchase of lands, or erecting, constructing and equipping of buildings for such purpose.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

Section 3 No corporation authorized to issue shares of stock without nominal or par value in pursuance of the provisions of the first section of this act shall begin to carry on business or shall incur any indebtedness until the amount of its capital stated in pursuance of said section shall have been fully paid in cash or in property taken at its actual value.

Section 4 For the purposes of this act the "stated capital" of a corporation issuing shares without nominal or par value shall be the capital with which the corporation will begin business as stated in the certificate of incorporation or reorganization or the joint agreement of merger of consolidation or the amount fixed and set forth as "stated capital" in the proceedings referred to in the second section of this act plus any net additions thereto or minus any net deductions therefrom Provided That "stated capital" shall not include any net profits or surplus earnings so long and during such period as the same may be paid out in the form of dividends under the provisions of section nine of this act And provided further That "stated capital" shall not be larger in amount than the excess as shown by the books of the corporation of its assets over and above its liabilities other than liabilities on account of shares of stock issued or to be issued by such corporation In the case of a corporation having outstanding shares with a nominal or par value as well as shares without a nominal or par value for the purpose of this act the portion of "stated capital" applicable to the shares without a nominal or par value shall be the excess of "stated capital" over and above the total par value of outstanding shares having a nominal or par value

Section 5 Preferences rights limitations privileges and restrictions authorized by the Constitution and laws of this Commonwealth may be stated in dollars or cents per share in respect to shares of stock without nominal or par value issued in pursuance of the provisions of this act

Section 6 Any such corporation may issue and may dispose of its authorized shares having no nominal or par value from time to time for such consideration as may be prescribed in the certificate of incorporation or reorganization or the joint agreement of merger or consolidation or the proceedings referred to in the second section of this act or determined by the stockholders at any annual or special meeting duly called and held for that purpose or determined by the board of directors acting under authority conferred by the stockholders or by the certificate of incorporation or reorganization by the joint agreement of merger or consolidation or by the proceedings referred to in the second section of this act

Section 7 Any and all shares without nominal or par value issued for the consideration prescribed or fixed in accordance with the provisions of section six hereof shall be deemed fully paid and nonassessable and the holder of such shares shall not be liable thereon to the corporation or to its creditors except for the liability of stockholders in their individual capacity now imposed by law for work or labor done to carry on the operations of the corporation or for debts due laborers mechanics and clerks.

Section 8 Every certificate for shares of stock without any nominal or par value shall have plainly stated upon its face the number of shares which it represents and no certificate shall express any par value for such shares or any rate of dividend to which it shall be entitled in terms of percentage of any par or other value

Section 9 No corporation having shares without nominal or par value issued under the provisions of this act shall declare or pay any dividend out of capital or out of anything except net profits or surplus earnings In case any such dividend shall be declared or paid other than from net profits or surplus earnings the directors in whose administration the same shall have been declared or paid except those who may have caused their dissent therefrom to be entered upon the minutes of such directors' meetings at the time or who being absent therefrom when such action was taken shall have filed their objections with the secretary of the corporation upon learning of such action shall be liable jointly and severally to such corporation and to the creditors thereof to the full amount of any loss sustained by such corporation or by its creditors by reason of such dividend.

Section 10 Any corporation authorized to have shares without any nominal or par value under the provisions of this act or of any prior act or acts may increase or reduce the number of shares which it may issue or the "stated capital" applicable thereto may alter or adjust the division of its authorized capital stock as between outstanding stock and authorized stock unissued and may make any similar adjustment of its capital structure or share structure in the manner and by the same stock vote as may now or may hereafter be prescribed by law for increasing the capital stock of such corporation

Section 11 Except as to any preferences rights limitations privileges and restrictions lawfully granted or imposed with respect to any stock or class thereof shares of stock without nominal or par value shall be deemed to be an aliquot part of the aggregate capital of the corporation issuing the same and equal to every other share of stock of the same class

Section 12 For the purpose of computing any tax or taxes the determination of which is based on the par value of shares of stock and not on the number of shares or the actual or ascertained value thereof and for the purpose of determining the amount of the liability of stockholders in their individual capacity for work or labor done to carry on the operations of a corporation or for debts due laborers mechanics and clerks each share of stock without any nominal or par value issued under the provisions of this act shall be considered the equivalent of a share having a nominal or par value of an amount equal to the "stated capital" applicable to such share

Nothing in this act contained shall be construed as excepting or relieving any such corporation from any requirement of law as to the payment of bonus but bonus shall be imposed computed collected and paid at the rate and in the manner now or hereafter provided by law

For the purpose of any certificate of notification report return or similar instrument wherein the amount or par value of stock or capital or capital stock paid in outstanding or retired is required to be stated in the case of shares without nominal or par value and with respect to such shares the amount or par value thereof outstanding or paid in prior to the date of such certificate report return or similar instrument shall be considered as the amount of "stated capital" in excess of the total par value of outstanding shares having a par value if any and the amount or par value thereof retired shall be considered as the amount of decrease if any of "stated capital" due to such retirement In the case of shares without nominal or par value presently to be issued in lieu of stating the amount or par value thereof in any such certificate report return or similar instrument an accurate and detailed description of the consideration received or to be received therefor or of the assets received or to be received for which the proceeds from the disposition of the said shares are to be used to pay or reimburse the treasury of the company and the net changes if any in the corporation's "stated capital" due to the receipt of such consideration shall be stated In the case of shares without nominal or par value authorized but unissued and not presently to be issued it shall not be necessary in such certificate report return or similar instrument to show the amount or par value thereof and only the number thereof need be stated

For the purpose of any stautory provisions limiting the amount of capital stock which a corporation may have or the relation between indebtedness and capital stock or prescribing

the portion or amount or par value of stock or capital which must be paid in cash or otherwise whether at the time of formation before commencing to do business or from time to time subsequent thereto the "stated capital" of a corporation having shares without nominal or par value shall be deemed to be its capital stock or the amount thereof

Nothing in this act contained shall be construed as excepting or relieving a corporation from any requirement of law as to the amount in dollars of paid in capital in cash or otherwise which it must have at any time

In any investigation or proceeding by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania or any agency thereof to determine the value of the property assets or capital stock of a corporation having shares without nominal or par value under the provisions of this act neither the stated capital of such corporation nor the number of shares of its outstanding stock without nominal or par value shall be controlling but the same may be disregarded or considered only to such extent as the Commonwealth or its agency shall deem necessary or proper for the purpose of such investigation or proceeding

Section 13 Except as otherwise provided by this act corporations issuing shares without any nominal or par value under the provisions hereof shall be and remain subject to the laws of this Commonwealth now or hereafter in force relating to the formation regulation reorganization consolidation or merger rights powers and privileges of such corporations and all other laws applicable thereto

Section 14 The act approved the twelfth day of July one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (Pamphlet Laws nine hundred fourteen) entitled "An act authorizing stock corporations other than building and loan associations and corporations authorized by law to transact a banking or insurance business to make provision upon formation reorganization merger or consolidation for the issue of either or both preferred or common shares without nominal or par value regulating the same and such corporations and prescribing the method of determining the number of shares and capital of corporations issuing shares in such manner" and sections one and two of the act approved the twenty-first day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three (Pamphlet Laws two hundred eighty-eight) entitled "An act authorizing certain corporations to authorize create and issue capital stock of any class or kind without nominal or par value and to change or convert their authorized or outstanding capital stock of any class or kind into shares of any class or kind either with or without nominal or par value and validating the creations and issues of stock heretofore made by corporations in accordance with the provisions hereof" and all other acts or parts of acts inconsistent with this act are hereby repealed

Section 15 The provisions of this act are severable and if any of the provisions hereof are held to be unconstitutional the decision shall not be construed to impair any other provision of this act It is hereby declared to be the legislative intent that this act would have been adopted had such unconstitutional provision not been included therein

Section 16 This act shall become effective immediately upon its passage by the General Assembly and approval by the Governor

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

NAYS—2

Griffith, Schrock,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed it without amendment.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1134 (Senate Bill No. 363), entitled:

An Act to amend sections one, two, four, five, six and seven of the act, approved the first day of June, one thousand nine hundred and fifteen (P. L. 678), entitled "An act to regulate the sale for agricultural purpose of crushed limestone, lime, gypsum, and related products; defining said products; and prescribing penalties for the violation of this act," extending the provisions of said act so as to regulate the sale of all "liming materials for agricultural purposes," defining said term, and giving the Secretary of Agriculture power in certain cases to revoke licenses issued under this act.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. HAINES. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer an amendment at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk for information.

The Clerks read the amendment as follows:

Amend section 1, page 9, line 21, by inserting after the word "products" the following: "if such deliveries do not exceed one hundred tons in any one year."

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the insertion of the amendment at this time? Is there any objection? The Chair hears none and the amendment will be inserted in accordance with the instructions of the House.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended lie over for printing.

RESOLUTION

RECALLING HOUSE BILL No. 647 FROM THE GOVERNOR

Mr. RAUB asked and obtained unanimous consent to offer a resolution which was twice read, considered and adopted:

In the House of Representatives, April 18, 1933.

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That House Bill No. 647, entitled "An act to amend section three of the act approved the seventh day of June one thousand nine hundred and seventeen (Pamphlet Laws four hundred fifteen) entitled 'An act relating to the qualification jurisdiction powers and duties of registers of wills and regulating proceedings before said registers and the costs thereof the effects of their acts and appeals therefrom' by requiring registers of wills to notify charitable institutions of devises and bequests to them" be recalled from the Governor for the purpose of amendment.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2095 (Senate Bill No. 466), entitled:

An Act to amend sections three and seven of the act approved the second day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws one thousand two hundred twenty-nine) entitled "An act to safeguard human health and life by providing for the licensing and regulation of persons and entities dealing in milk and for human consumption conferring powers and imposing duties on the Secretary of Health and the Advisory Health Board and otherwise providing for the administration of the act and imposing penalties" by regulating the pasteurization of milk and milk used for certain purposes

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

MOTION TO POSTPONE

Mr. DENNING. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be placed upon the postponed calendar.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. HAINES. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Denning.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Denning, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. DENNING. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. HAINES. May I ask the purpose of moving to postpone this bill?

Mr. DENNING. To consider amendments to correct features of the bill that are objectionable to some of my constituents.

Mr. HAINES. Mr. Speaker, I see no reason why the amendments cannot be offered on the floor at this time by reconsidering the vote by which the bill passed third reading and then offering amendments.

Mr. DENNING. Mr. Speaker, I have not the amendments ready at the present time. As soon as they are ready I will present them.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion.

It was not agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

THE SPEAKER (GROVER C. TALBOT) IN THE CHAIR

COMMUNICATIONS FROM THE GOVERNOR

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

APPROVAL OF RESOLUTION RECALLING HOUSE BILL No. 534

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, April 19, 1933.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

I have the honor to inform you that I have this day approved and signed a resolution of the House and Senate, recalling from the Governor House Bill No. 534, Printer's No. 817, for the purpose of amendment.

Accordingly, the original bill is herewith returned.

GIFFORD PINCHOT.

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE

Mr. HERMANSEN. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which this bill passed finally be reconsidered.

The motion was agreed to.

Mr. HERMANSEN. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which this bill passed third reading be reconsidered.

The motion was agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. HERMANSEN. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer amendments at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk for information.

SENATE MESSAGE

AMENDED SENATE BILL RECALLED FROM THE GOVERNOR RETURNED FOR CONCURRENCE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, presented for concurrence bill numbered and entitled as follows:

SENATE BILL No. 392.

An Act authorizing the compromise of tax claims on rail property purchased by the county on county treasurers' sales for nonpayment of taxes, and the reconveyance of such property.

Said bill having been recalled from the Governor for amendment, the vote had on final passage and third reading reconsidered in the Senate and the bill amended, in which amendments the concurrence of the House of Representatives is requested.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend section 1, page 1, line 12 by inserting after the word "property" the word "or"; also by striking out after the word "heirs" the word "or authorized"; also in line 13, by striking out at the beginning of said line the word "representative."

Amend section 2, page 2 by striking out beginning in line 7 as follows: "in all such proceedings the county commissioners shall be the respondent and shall represent and act for all of the taxing authorities entitled to share in the distribution of the moneys to be received under such compromise agreement At any such hearing no more than five witnesses on each side shall be heard" and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "At least five days' notice of such hearing shall be given to the taxing authorities of each municipal subdivision having tax claims against such real estate."

Amend section 3, page 2, line 20 by striking out at the beginning of said lines the words "or his or their nominee"; also in line 21 by inserting after the word "proceeding" the following: "The proceeds of such compromise shall be distributed to the respective taxing authorities in proportion to their tax claims The title conveyed shall be free and clear of all tax liens but shall not discharge any liens which would not have been discharged on sale for the taxes"

On the question,

Will the House concur in the amendments made by the Senate?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1211 (Senate Bill No. 345), as follows:

An Act prohibiting contractors subcontractors and builders and their agents from paying out using or appropriating moneys and funds received for the erection construction alteration completion and repair of buildings and for additions thereto before first paying in full or pro rata all claims due to architects surveyors engineers and persons furnishing labor and material

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That all moneys or funds whatsoever received by a contractor subcontractor or builder or his her or its agent for the erection construction completion alteration or repair of any building or for additions to a building are hereby declared to be trust funds in the hands of the contractor or subcontractor or builder or his her or its agent It shall be unlawful for any contractor subcontractor builder or his her or its agent to pay out use or appropriate any of said moneys or funds until the same have first been applied to the payment of the full amount of all bona fide claims due and owing by such contractor subcontractor or builder to architects surveyors engineers and to persons furnishing labor and material to such contractor subcontractor or builder for the erection construction completion alteration or repair of or for additions to such building whether or not the said labor or material enter into or become component parts of the building or additions thereto

No moneys or funds shall be paid for the erection construction completion alteration on repair of any building or for additions to a building except for payment of all bona fide claims due and owing by such contractor or builder to architects surveyors engineers and persons furnishing labor or materials thereto and if paid in one payment the owner of said building or his disbursing agent shall require the contractor to present a schedule supported by affidavit of said contractor showing the amounts owing to architects surveyors engineers and persons furnishing labor or materials whether or not the said labor or material enter into or become component parts of the building or additions thereto and the payment shall be made to the contractor as agent of said architect surveyor engineer and person furnishing labor or materials in accordance with said schedule.

If paid in one or more payments no payment after the first payment may be made by the owner or his disbursing agent unless the contractor furnish to the owner or his disbursing agent a statement supported by his affidavit showing that any money previously paid to the contractor had been expended in payment to the architects surveyors engineers and persons furnishing labor or materials for services work labor or material supplied or done in connection with the particular building or buildings and none other allowing a reasonable amount to the contractor for overhead not exceeding ten per centum of any amount received

Before final payment the owner or his disbursing agent shall require a schedule of all amounts remaining due the said architects surveyors engineers and persons furnishing labor or materials and shall give fifteen days notice to all such architects surveyors engineers and persons furnishing labor or materials that final payment is about to be made and where it shall be made and said final payment shall be made to the contractor as the agent of the sub-contractors contained in the list or schedule so presented.

The failure of a contractor or subcontractor or builder to pay in full or pro-rata from time to time to the full extent of the moneys and funds received by him her or it all of the bona fide claims of architects surveyors engineers and of persons furnishing labor and material as required by this act within sixty days after the receipt of any moneys or funds for the erection construction completion alteration or repair of any such building or any addition thereto shall be prima facie evidence of the payment use or appropriation of the trust moneys and funds for purposes other than the payments of bona fide claims of architects surveyors engineers and of persons furnishing labor and material

Section 2 All acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed it with amendments in which the concurrence of the Senate is requested.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1692 (Senate Bill No. 535), as follows:

An Act to amend section eight of the act approved the twenty-ninth day of May one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (Pamphlet Laws two hundred eighty) entitled "An act relating to delinquent taxes on seated lands and prescribing interest charges on nonpayment thereof requiring the receivers and collectors of county city borough town township school district and poor district taxes to make a return to the county commissioners of such unpaid taxes and providing for the lien thereof authorizing the county treasurers to collect such taxes and to sell seated lands at public sale for taxes heretofore or hereafter returned as unpaid and authorizing the county commissioners to purchase such lands and resell the same under certain circumstances" as amended by further providing for the sales of seated lands for delinquent taxes assessed and levied for the year one thousand nine hundred and thirty or any year prior thereto where no sales have previously been made for delinquent taxes of that year and validating liens on lands of taxes heretofore returned when land has not been advertised or sold

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General

Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That section eight of the act approved the twenty-ninth day of May one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (Pamphlet Laws two hundred eighty) entitled "An act relating to delinquent taxes on seated lands and prescribing interest charges on nonpayment thereof requiring the receivers and collectors of county city borough town township school district and poor district taxes to make return to the county commissioners of such unpaid taxes and providing for the lien thereof authorizing the county treasurers to collect such taxes and to sell seated lands at public sale for taxes heretofore or hereafter returned as unpaid authorizing the county commissioners to purchase such lands and resell the same under certain circumstances" as last amended by section one of the act approved the fifteenth day of August one thousand nine hundred and thirty-two (Pamphlet Laws fifty) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 8 Such sale shall be made on the first Monday of August in the second year succeeding the year in which the respective taxes are assessed and levied or on any day to which such sale may be adjourned or readjourned from time to time except in the case of taxes levied for the year one thousand nine hundred and thirty or any year prior [to the year one thousand nine hundred and thirty] thereto and returned under the provisions of this or any other law in which case and for such taxes the sale shall be held in the year one thousand nine hundred [thirty-one] thirty-three or on any day to which such sale is adjourned or readjourned Provided That the advertisement and notice of a sale as required by this act may be given preceding the date of any adjourned or readjourned sale in which case no prior advertisement or notice shall be required and in case the sales for different years' taxes be held on the same date the advertisements and notices may be consolidated Provided further That if any such sale be adjourned or readjourned after advertisement and notice by public announcement at such sale adjournment or readjournment no additional advertisement or notice shall be necessary for such adjourned or readjourned sale Provided further That no such adjournment or readjournment shall be for a longer period than thirty days unless the county treasurer with the consent in writing of the county commissioners and the approval of the judge of the court of the county in which the sale is pending shall declare at the time fixed for a sale or any adjournment or readjournments thereof that because of widespread economic and business depression and usual unemployment incident thereto a sale would be inadvisable in which case any such sale may be adjourned or readjourned at any one time and from time to time for a period not exceeding two years and six months and in no case beyond the date of the actual holding of the first subsequent sale for any other year's taxes provided that when after advertisement of a sale it has been determined as aforesaid to adjourn any sale for taxes the county treasurer shall publish at the expense of the county in at least two newspapers of general circulation in the county if so many be published in the county a brief notice or advertisement announcing said adjournment and the actual new date to which such sale for taxes has been adjourned

For each tract of land so disposed of the county treasurer shall be entitled to the following fees which shall be taxed as part of the costs of such proceedings and shall be paid the same as other costs

Advertising each tract including printer's charge the actual cost

Selling each tract or part thereof	.25
Writing and signing each deed	1.50
Acknowledging every deed	.50
Writing and filing every bond to acknowledge the purchase money	.25

The county shall in the first instance be liable for the cost of advertising treasurers' sales and the fees collected for such advertising shall be paid into the county treasury for the use of the county

For receiving and paying over the purchase money or taxes collected by him the county treasurer shall be entitled to a commission of two per centum (2%) thereof such commission to be deducted from the amount to be paid to the taxing district upon any settlement with the taxing district and upon presentation to the taxing district of a transcript of the information required to be compiled by the county treasurer by section eleven hereof

Section 2 No failure to advertise for sale any lands heretofore returned under this or any other act of Assembly and no failure to hold any treasurers sale of any such lands at the time required by law shall be deemed to invalidate the lien of any tax assessed against such lands but the lien of any such tax is hereby validated and any such lands may be advertised and sold under the provisions of this act and the taxes due thereon collected in the same manner as if said lands had been returned under the provisions of this act

Section 3 This act shall become effective immediately upon its final enactment

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

NAYS—0

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed it without amendment.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2099 (Senate Bill No. 727), entitled:

An Act providing for the regulation of aeronautics within this Commonwealth; conferring powers and imposing duties upon the Department of Revenue in respect thereto; providing for the licensing and registration of airman and aircraft; establishing the legal status of air navigation; providing for sovereignty in and ownership of space; providing for lawfulness of flights; regulating civil causes of action arising out of operation of aircraft; fixing the status of contracts, crimes and torts in, by, or by means of operation of aircraft; imposing duties upon officers, burgesses, magistrates, aldermen, justices of the peace, the courts and clerks thereof; providing for denial or revocation of licenses; providing for certain penalties and their disposition; and repealing certain existing laws.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

BILL POSTPONED

Mr. McKAY. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be placed upon the postponed calendar.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2090 (Senate Bill No. 561), entitled:

An Act to amend section one of the act approved the first day of May one thousand nine hundred and thirteen (Pamphlet Laws one hundred fifty-five) entitled "An act regulating the letting of certain contracts for the erection construction and alteration of public buildings" providing that in such cases separate contracts shall be awarded for the structural steel work

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. JOHN J. KANE. Mr. Speaker, is there any member of the House present who can explain the purpose of this bill?

The SPEAKER. For the information of the gentleman, this is a Senate bill. Is there any member in the House who can explain this bill?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I do no know whether I can explain to you all of the details of the bill, but it is my understanding that this bill would be very helpful to the Pennsylvania manufacturers of structural steel. I think there are a number of bills that follow it of a similar nature. Where the Department of Property and supplies asks for bids, a lump sum bid would permit the contractor to secure structural steel out of the State, while if the bids are taken separately for the structural steel, it would enable the manufacturers in Pennsylvania to get in their bids and get the business, and that would help the steel industry and help the Commonwealth and help all the people in the Commonwealth.

Mr. HOUGH. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, at the time that you put the thing in the position that it helps the steel manufacturer; it also puts the Pennsylvania contractor in a position that all the responsibility for the construction is taken away from him. So, I feel that this measure, while it really is helping one branch of the business, is a discrimination against the other.

I ask you to vote it down.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILL POSTPONED

Mr. JOSEPH R. LYNCH. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be placed upon the postponed calendar.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2089 (Senate Bill No. 560), entitled:

An Act to amend section one thousand eight hundred and five of the act approved the twenty-fourth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (P. L. 1206), entitled "An act concerning townships of the first class; amending, revising, consolidating, and changing the law relating thereto"; providing that in awarding certain contracts for the erection, construction and alteration of public buildings, separate bids shall be received for the structural steel work.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILL POSTPONED

Mr. JOHN J. KANE. Mr. Speaker, this bill is similar to Senate Bill No. 561, which has just been placed on the postponed calendar, and I therefore move that this bill be placed upon the postponed calendar.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2087 (Senate Bill No. 558), entitled:

An Act to amend section five hundred and sixty-three of the act, approved the twenty-first day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (P. L. 1278), entitled "An act relating to counties of the second, third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh, and eighth classes; and revising, amending and consolidating the laws relating thereto"; providing that in awarding certain contracts for the erection, construction and alteration of public buildings, separate bids shall be received for the structural steel work.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILL POSTPONED

Mr. HOUGH. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be placed upon the postponed calendar.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2086 (Senate Bill No. 557), entitled:

An Act to amend section two thousand five hundred and eleven of the act, approved the fourth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven (P. L. 519), entitled "An act concerning boroughs, and revising, amending, and consolidating the law relating to boroughs," providing that in awarding certain contracts for the erection, construction and alteration of public buildings separate bids shall be received for the structural steel work.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILL POSTPONED

Mr. MELCHIORRE. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be placed upon the postponed calendar.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2088 (Senate Bill No. 559), as follows:

An Act to amend section one thousand nine hundred and six of the act approved the twenty-third day of June, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (P. L. 932), entitled "An act relating to cities of the third class; and amending, revising, and consolidating the law relating thereto"; providing that in awarding certain contracts for the erection, construction, and alteration of public buildings, separate bids shall be received for the structural steel work.

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That section one thousand nine hundred and six of the act approved the twenty-third day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (Pamphlet Laws nine hundred thirty-two) entitled "An act relating to cities of the third class and amending revising and consolidating the law relating thereto" is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 1906 Separate Bids for Plumbing Heating Ventilating and Electrical Work and Structural Steel work In the preparation of specifications for the erection construction and alteration of any public building when the entire cost of such work shall exceed one thousand dollars the architect engineer or other person preparing such specifications shall prepare separate specifications for the plumbing heating ventilating and electrical work and the structural steel work. The person or persons authorized to enter into contracts for the erection construction or alteration of such public buildings shall receive separate bids upon each of the said branches of work and award the contract for the same to the lowest responsible bidder for each of said branches

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speakers and members of the House, this is the same sort of bill as the previous four that have been placed upon the postponed calendar. I seriously doubt whether many of the members have had a chance to study them. It seems to me that it should go the same way as the others have, in order that we may have a chance to look at all of them.

There is a great deal of opposition to these bills, and I think it is better to place them on the postponed calendar and consider them them all at the same time. That is the reason why we have asked to place them on the postponed calendar.

BILL POSTPONED

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be placed on the postponed calendar.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2128 (Senate Bill No. 454), as follows:

An Act authorizing school districts to issue and sell bonds for certain purposes and for a certain period of time providing for a trust fund and a sinking fund for the payment thereof and defining the duties of the officers and members of the school board in relation to said funds and fixing a penalty for the violation thereof

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That to meet the emergency occasioned by the extraordinary decrease in tax collections due to business depression and widespread unemployment it shall be lawful for the board of school directors of any school district to issue and sell at not less than par bonds bearing interest at a rate not exceeding six (6) per centum per annum payable in not more than ten (10) years from the date of issue in an amount not exceeding the amount of uncollected taxes due on real estate at the date of the adoption of the resolution authorizing such action Any subsequent borrowing under the provisions of this act shall be limited to an amount which when added to the amount or amounts previously borrowed shall not exceed the amount of uncollected taxes and the proceeds of any bonds issued under the provisions of this Act by any school board shall be used only for the payment of the operating expenses of the school district

Section 2 For the purpose of creating a sinking fund for the payments of the bonds issued under the provisions of this act the board of directors of the school district issuing the same shall annually (until payment of said bonds and the interest and any taxes covenanted to be paid thereon be fully provided for) levy and collect in addition to other taxes a tax sufficient to pay the interest and principal of the indebtedness and any taxes covenanted to be paid thereon which tax shall be called the "Emergency Sinking Fund Tax" which shall be paid into the school district treasury and shall be kept separate and distinct from all other funds in a fund to be called "Emergency Sinking Fund" and shall be applied towards the redemption of said bonds and the payment of the interest and taxes if any thereon and to no other purpose whatever and the said bonds when so redeemed shall be cancelled

Section 3 Each resolution authorizing the issuing of said bonds shall recite an amount of the uncollected taxes then due at least equal to the amount of the proposed issue of bonds which said amount of uncollected taxes so recited shall become a trust fund for the redemption of said bonds and the payment of the interest and taxes if any thereon and it shall be the duty of the secretary of the school board to credit the Emergency Sinking Fund and of the treasurer of the school district to deposit in the said Emergency Sinking Fund immediately upon receipt thereof any and all said uncollected taxes provided that the amount of said uncollected taxes received and deposited in the Emergency Sinking Fund in any year may be deducted the following year from the amount of the annual tax levy to be levied and collected for the redemption of said bonds and the payment of the interest and taxes if any thereon

Section 4 Any person who shall directly or indirectly apply or use any of said uncollected taxes to or for any purpose other than the Emergency Sinking Fund shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in a sum not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000.00) or imprisoned for a term not exceeding one (1) year or either or both in the discretion of the court

Section 5 The trust fund and the emergency sinking fund covering each issue of bonds under the provisions of this act shall be numbered alike and in consecutive order and the amount thereof as well as the uncollected taxes shall be deducted from the gross indebtedness in ascertaining the net indebtedness of the school district

Section 6 The temporary emergency power hereby granted shall be in addition to the powers granted school districts to issue bonds and create indebtedness under existing law

Section 7 Any bonds issued under the provisions of this Act shall be in accordance with the provisions of the Constitution and the Act of April twentieth one thousand eight hundred seventy-four entitled "An act to regulate the manner of increasing the indebtedness of municipalities etc" as supplemented and amended and shall require the approval of the Department of Internal Affairs

Section 8 This act shall become effective immediately upon its approval by the Governor and remain in force and effect only for five (5) years thereafter

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

RESOLUTION

RECALLING HOUSE BILL No. 1 FROM THE GOVERNOR

Mr. SCHWARTZ asked and obtained unanimous consent to offer a resolution which was twice read, considered and adopted:

In the House of Representatives, April 19, 1933.

Resolved (if the Senate occur), That House Bill No. 1, Printer's No. 473, entitled "An act relating to baseball and football on Sunday prohibiting baseball and football on Sunday during certain hours and also during certain other hours unless the electors of a municipality are in favor of the same and in certain cases a license has first been accured from the municipal authorities providing for referendums to ascertain the will of the electors and for the enactment and repeal of licensing ordinances and resolutions in accordance therewith providing penalties and repealing inconsistent laws," be recalled from the Governor for the purpose of amendment.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION (SERIAL No. 115)

Mr. STEEDLE. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up for consideration of the House Concurrent Resolution of the Senate, Serial No. 115, generally known as the Howell Resolution on Salary Reductions.

The resolution was read by the Clerk as follows:

In the Senate, February 21, 1933.

Whereas, The continuance of the economic depression has seriously affected the revenues of all forms of Government and necessitates the greatest economy and reduction in governmental costs possible in order that budgets may be balanced, and our unemployed cared for; and

Whereas, The salaries paid to public officers and employes constitute an appreciable part of the cost of government; and

Whereas, Industry and business has been forced to reduce salaries and wages in order to continue operation and provide employment; therefore be it

Resolved, (if the House of Representatives concur), That it is the sense of the General Assembly that the salaries, compensation and emoluments of office of all public officers and employes of the executive, legislative and judicial departments of the State Government, should be reduced, and that those agencies and officers of government charged with the fixing of salaries and compensation of public employes should reduce such salaries and compensation in accordance with the provisions of this resolution;

Resolved, That all public officers of the executive, legislative and judicial departments of the State Government be urged to agree voluntarily to accept reductions in their salaries, compensation and emoluments of office and return the same to the government or permit it to retain, the percentage of such salaries, compensation and emoluments of office as is provided for by this resolution;

Resolved, That it is the sense of the General Assembly that such reductions in salaries, compensation and emoluments of office should be in accordance with the following standards:

(a) Salaries, compensation and emoluments amounting to $750 and less per annum should not be reduced.

(b) All salaries, compensation and emoluments amounting to more than $750 per annum should be reduced by an amount equal to 20% of the difference in amount between the present salary, compensation or emolument and the sum of $750.

(c) In the case of per diem compensation, such compensation amounting to $2 per day and less should not be reduced; and such compensation amounting to more than $2 per day should be reduced by an amount equal to 20% of the difference in amount between the present per diem compensation and the sum of $2.

(d) The amount of the compensation of the Members of the General Assembly not already paid over be reduced by 40%: Provided, That no such reduction shall be made as to any Member unless he shall agree thereto in writing sent to the Chief Clerk of the House.

Resolved, That it is the sense of the General Assembly that such reductions should become effective as of the first day of June, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three, with the exception of those effecting the compensation of the members, officers and employes of the General Assembly which should apply to all such compensation, that has not heretofore been paid.

Resolved, That in order that the General Assembly, may ascertain the amount of money which can be saved by the foregoing reductions the Auditor General be directed to forward a copy of this resolution upon its final passage to the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, State Treasurer and Secretary of Internal Affairs, to each member of the Executive Board of the State Government, to the heads of the several departments and of the several administrative boards and commissions, to each of the judges learned in the law of the Commonwealth, and to the officers and members of the General Assembly, with the request that all persons affected thereby notify the Auditor General, in writing, within two weeks of such request of the acceptance of the provisions hereof and that requisitions of salary for such persons be drawn at the reduced rates, after the first day of June, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three, in the case of members of the executive and judicial branches of the government.

Resolved, That this resolution is intended to be effective upon final passage.

On the question,

Will the House concur in the resolution of the Senate?

Mr. JOHN E. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to make some inquiries as to the constitutionality of this resolution According to page 60, article 72 ————

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman please inform the Chair to which book he is referring?

Mr. JOHN E. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, this is Article III, Section 33 of the Constitution, "a member who has a personal or private interest in any measure or bill proposed or pending before the General Assembly shall disclose the fact to the House of which he is a member and shall not vote thereon."

We are all for law observance, or should be.

The SPEAKER. The Chair informs the gentleman that the provision of the Constitution under which reference is made is wholly irrelevant, in that it applies to a bill and not to a resolution.

Mr. JOHN E. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I am only opposing the resolution for one reason. I do not think that the cut is hardly enough. Now, I ask for the discharge of the committee—

The SPEAKER. The gentleman is out of order.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, as I understand it, this is just a resolution?

The SPEAKER. A mere resolution.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I move that the resolution be re-referred to the Committee on Judiciary General for further study and reduction.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I call for the order of the day.

On the question recurring,

Will the House concur in the resolution of the Senate?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. Turner and Mr. Andrews and were as follows:

BILL POSTPONED

Mr. PHILIP STERLING. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be placed upon the postponed calendar.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1447 (Senate Bill No. 228), entitled:

An Act relating to taxation; designating the subjects, property and persons subject to and exempt from taxation for all local purposes; providing for and regulating the assessment and valuation of persons, property and subjects of taxation for county purposes and for the use of those municipal and quasi-municipal corporations which levy their taxes on county assessments and valuations; amended, revising and consolidating the law relating thereto; and repealing existing laws.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, I would like to inquire whether there is anybody in this House who can tell me what this bill does. Does it change the code or does it change the existing law? It is about an inch thick, and I don't think that many members of the House have read it through.

The SPEAKER. This is a Senate bill, but the Chair requests any member of the House who can make the explanation to please do so. Is there any member in the House who can make the explanation?

Mr. TURNER. Might I ask that this bill be temporarily passed to give me an opportunity to examine the bill? I am not familiar with it at this time.

The SPEAKER. The Chair will pass the bill for the present.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2137 (Senate Bill No. 771), entitled:

An Act to amend section twenty-one of the act, approved the seventh day of June, one thousand nine hundred and fifteen (P. L. 900), entitled "An act to provide for the immediate registration of all births and deaths throughout the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, by means of certificates of berths and deaths, and burial or removal permits; requiring prompt returns to the Central Bureau of Vital Statistics, as required to be established by the State Department of Health; and, in order to secure prompt and faithful registration of births, marriages, deaths, and diseases, of practitioners of medicine and surgery, of midwives, nurses, and undertakers, and of all persons whose occupation is deemed to be of importance in obtaining complete registration of births, deaths, marriages, and diseases throughout the State, as provided in section ten of an act, entitled 'An act creating the Department of Health and defining its powers and duties,' approved the twenty-seventh day of April, nineteen hundred and five, and providing penalties for violations of this act," as amended, by providing for special certificates of the birth of adopted persons; and requiring school authorities to accept such certificates for certain purposes.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed it without amendment.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2263 (Senate Bill No. 932), entitled:

An Act to amend sections one, two three, and four of the act approved the second day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (P .L. 1229), entitled "An act to safeguard human health and life by providing for the licensing and regulation of persons and entities dealing in milk for human consumption; conferring powers and imposing duties on the Secretary of Health, and the Advisory Health Board, and otherwise providing for the administration of the act; and imposing penalties;" limiting the status of an approved inspector; changing the requirements for holders of milk permits and imposing additional duties on such permit holders or applicants therefor; granting additional powers to the Secretary of Health in the enforcement of the act.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. McCREARY. Mr. Speaker, I would like to have the author of this bill explain its purpose, if I may.

The SPEAKER. This being a Senate Bill the author is not present. Is there any one in the House who can make the explanation?

Mr. McCREARY. Mr. Speaker, I can't vote on a bill that I don't know any more about than I do about this one.

The SPEAKER. Does the gentleman desire to interrogate the gentleman from Bucks, Mr. Haines?

Mr. McCREARY. Mr. Speaker, I would like to address anybody that can explain this bill to me.

Mr. HAINES. Mr. Speaker, I would just briefly attempt to answer the interrogation, which I presume the gentleman from Erie desires to ask, with reference to the provisions of this proposed bill.

It provides for amendments to the Milk Code, which will clarify certain sections which are now difficult to interpret

It authorizes the Department of Health to carry out the operation of the code in a more businesslike manner.

Personally, I do not think there is anything in the proposed bill that is detrimental to the producers, the distributors or the consumers. I believe that it is a good piece of legislation, and I ask for your support.

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE REPORT ON HOUSE BILL No. 1374

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time the report of the Committee of Conference on House Bill No. 1374, Printer's No. 977.

The report was read by the Clerk as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE ON HOUSE BILL No. 1374

To the Members of the Senate and House of Representatives:

We, the undersigned, Committee of Confernce on the part of the Senate and House of Representatives for the purpose of considering House Bill No. 1374, entitled: "An Act relating to the minimum salaries and annual increments of the teaching and supervisory staffs of the public schools granting power to the Superintendent of Public Instruction to permit as to certain school districts temporary reductions in the salary schedules authorizing Superintendent of Public Instruction to suspend mandatory provisions of the act approved the eighteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred eleven (Pamphlet Laws three hundred nine), entitled "An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, together with the provisions by which it shall be administered, and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof; providing revenue to establish and maintain the same, and the method of collecting such revenue and repealing all laws, general, special or local, or any parts thereof that are or may be inconsistent therewith," and of its amendments and supplements; prohibiting school districts from demanding, requesting or accepting gifts or donations from members of the teaching and supervisory staffs and empowering the Superintendent of Public Instruction to forfeit certain State subsidiaries for violations thereof relating to the effect of payment of salaries which are less than those prescribed by salary schedules granting certain options to the members of the School Employes' Retirement System and temporarily superseding any inconsistent acts and parts of acts, respectfully submit the following bill as our report:

RICHARD W. WILLIAMSON,
CHARLES H. EALY,
CHARLES W. STAUDENMEIER,
Committee on the part of the Senate.

THOMAS B. WILSON,
A. J. WHITE HUTTON,
WILLIAM ELLIS ZIMMERMAN,
Committee on the part of the House of Representatives.

An Act relating to the minimum salaries and annual increments of the teaching and supervisory staffs of the public schools granting power to the Superintendent of Public Instruction to permit as to certain school districts temporary reductions in the salary schedules authorizing Superintendent of Public Instruction to suspend mandatory provisions of the act approved the eighteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred eleven (Pamphlet Laws three hundred nine) entitled "An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania together with the provisions by which it shall be administered and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof providing revenue to establish and maintaining the same and the method of collecting such revenue and repealing all laws general special or local or any parts thereof that are or may be inconsistent therewith" and of its amendments and supplements prohibiting school districts from demanding requesting or accepting gifts or donations from members of the teaching and supervisory staffs and empowering the Superintendent of Public Instruction to forfeit certain State subsidies for violations thereof relating to the effect of payment of salaries which are less than those prescribed by salary schedules granting certain options to the members of the School Employes' Retirement System and temporarily superseding any inconsistent acts and parts of acts

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That Definitions The following terms shall be construed in this act to have the following meanings

1 "Employe" Any teacher principal supervisor or supervising principal county superintendent district superintendent assistant superintendent any members of the staff of the State Teachers' Colleges of the Cheyney Training School for Teachers of the staff of the Department of Public Instruction or of the staff of the State Council of Education or any clerk stenographer janitor attendance officer or other person engaged in any work concerning or relating to the public schools of this Commonwealth or in connection therewith or under contract or engagement to perform one or more of these functions No person however shall be deemed an employe within the meaning of this act who is not regularly engaged in performing one or more of these functions as a full-time occupation outside of vacation periods In all cases of doubt the School Employes' Retirement Board shall determine whether any person is an employe as defined in this act

2 "Employer" The Commonwealth school district State Teachers' Colleges Cheyney Training School for Teachers board or other committee by which the employe is paid

3 "Teacher or supervisor" A member of the teaching or supervisory staff or other appointee of any school district to whom any statutory minimum salary schedule shall be applicable

4 "Salary schedule" A schedule of minimum basic salaries plus required increments prescribed by any Act of Assembly for the payment of salaries of teachers or supervisors

Section 2 Re-employed Teachers and Supervisors During the period in which this act shall be in effect no school district shall be required to pay to any teacher or supervisor who during the year preceding the effective date of this act shall have been in its employ or who during such year shall have been in the employ of any school district whose territory shall wholly or in part comprise such district any salary or compensation at a rate greater than ninety per centum of the minimum amount which such teacher or supervisor would have been entitled to receive under the salary schedule if he or she had entered the employ of such district immediately prior to the effective date of this act

Section 3 New Teachers and Supervisors During the period in which this act shall be in effect no school district shall be required to pay to any teacher or supervisor who during the year preceding the effective date of this act was not employed by such school district or by a district whose territory shall wholly or in part comprise such district any salary or compensation at a rate greater than ninety per centum of the minimum amount which such teacher or supervisor would have been entitled to receive under the salary schedule if he or she had entered the employ of such district immediately prior to the effective date of this act

Section 4 Additional Reductions When the board of school directors of any school district shall present to the Superintendent of Public Instruction evidence which shall convince him that the district does not and will not have sufficient funds to pay the salaries required by the salary schedule as modified by the foregoing provisions of this act or that the payment of salaries of the schedule as thus modified would be unreasonably oppressive upon the school district the Superintendent of Public Instruction may for such district and for the period during which this act shall be in effect reduce the percentage herein provided from ninety to a percentage which he shall deem to be just and reasonable for that district

In lieu of or in addition to thus reducing the above percentage the Superintendent of Public Instruction may as to any such district and for such period suspend any provisions of the act approved the eighteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred eleven (Pamphlet Laws three hundred nine) entitled "An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania together with the provisions by which it shall be administered and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof providing revenue to establish and maintain the same and the method of collecting such revenue and repealing all laws general special or local or any parts thereof that are or may be inconsistent therewith" and of its amendments and supplements when such provisions require and make mandatory any action by the school district or its board of school directors

Section 5 All reductions of salary or compensation made by any school district under authority of this act should be extended and applied to all employes of the district on an equitable graduated scale that is those receiving the largest compensation or salary to receive the largest reduction and those receiving the smallest salary or compensation the smallest reduction

Section 6 Retirements Options During the year which shall begin on July first one thousand nine hundred thirty-three and close June thirtieth one thousand nine hundred thirty-four each employe who is a member of the School Employes' Retirements System shall have the option of contributing to the School Employes Retirement Fund either on the basis of the total salary which he or she will receive during such year or on the basis of the salary which he or she received during the year which began July first one thousand nine hundred thirty-two and ended June thirtieth one thousand nine hundred thirty-three Each such employe shall notify in writing his employer on or before September first one thousand nine hundred thirty-three upon which salary he or she elects to contribute

During the year which shall begin July first one thousand nine hundred thirty-four and close June thirtieth one thousand nine hundred thirty-five each employe who is a member of the School Employes' Retirement System shall have the option of contributing to the School Employes' Retirement Fund either on the basis of the total salary he or she will receive during such year or on the basis of the total salary which he or she received during the year which began July first one thousand nine hundred thirty-two and closed June thirtieth one thousand nine hundred thirty-three Each such employe shall notify in writing his employer on or before September first one thousand nine hundred thirty-four upon which salary he or she elects to contribute Each employer shall notify the School Employes' Retirement Board in writing on or before September fifteenth one thousand nine hundred thirty-three and on or before September fifteenth one thousand nine hundred thirty-four of the option elected by each such employe for the then current year

During each of such years which begin on July first one thousand nine hundred thirty-three and July first one thousand nine hundred thirty-four the employer shall contribute on the basis of the salary upon which each of such employes shall have thus elected to contribute

Each new member who comes into the School Employes' Retirement System during the period beginning July first one thousand nine hundred thirty-three and ending on June thirtieth one thousand nine hundred thirty-five shall contribute on the basis of the salary actually received The employer shall contribute upon the same basis

The salary upon which each such employe elects to contribute for each of the years beginning July first one thousand nine hundred thirty-three and July first one thousand nine hundred thirty-four shall be used as the salary for each such year in the determination of any final salary upon which a retirement allowance will be computed

Section 7 Effect of Payment of Salaries Which Are Less Than Those Prescribed by Salary Schedule There shall be no deduction from the amount to be paid by the Commonwealth to a school district as a partial reimbursement for the salary or compensation of any teacher or supervisor because the district pays such person any time during the biennium beginning on the first day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-three a smaller salary or compensation than is prescribed for such person by the salary schedule so long as the amount which the district pays is not less than the amount permitted by the provisions of this act or than that allowed by the Superintendent of Public Instruction in pursuance of the provisions of this act

Section 8 Prohibition Against Demanding Requesting or Accepting Gifts or Donations During the period in which this act shall be in effect it shall be unlawful for any board of school directors to demand request or accept directly or indirectly any gift or donation from any teacher or supervisor within its employ

Section 9 Forfeiture of Subsidies When during the period during which this act shall be in effect the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall be of the opinion that any school district shall have violated the provisions of this act by demanding requesting or accepting any gift or donation from one or more teachers or supervisors he shall subject to the restrictions herein provided have the power to declare forfeited for the then current school year any State subsidy which is to be paid to the district as a partial reimbursement of the salary of each such teacher or supervisor

Before declaring any such forfeiture as to any school district the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall mail to the board of school directors of the district a statement setting forth the alleged violations and the names of the one or more teachers or supervisors from whom the gifts or donations are alleged to have been demanded requested or accepted The statement shall be accompanied by a notice stating that unless a denial of such allegations verified by the affidavit of the president or secretary of the board is received by the Superintendent of Public Instruction within fifteen days he will declare a forfeiture as to such subsidy for each such teacher or supervisor If such a denial shall not be received within such fifteen days the Superintendent of Public Instruction may declare such one or more forfeitures

If such a denial shall be received the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall conduct a hearing to determine whether or not there have been any such violations He shall give reasonable notice of the time and place of the hearing to the board of school directors of the district and at the hearing shall give the board the right to be heard and to be represented by counsel

If after the hearing the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall be of the opinion that one or more of the violation set forth in the statement which he shall have sent to the board as herein provided did actually occur he may as herein provided forfeit the subsidies to be paid to the district as a partial reimbursement for the salary of each teacher or supervisor listed in such statement from whom in his opinion the district or its representatives shall have demanded requested or accepted a gift or donation

Section 10 Impairment of Contracts Nothing in this act shall be construed as impairing the obligation of any contract made before the effective date of this act

Section 11 Constitutional Construction The Provisions of this act shall be severable and if any of its provisions shall be held to be unconstitutional the decisions of the court as to those provisions shall not affect the validity of the remaining provisions of this act It is hereby declared as a legislative intent that this act would have been adopted by the General Assembly had such unconstitutional provisions not been included herein

Section 12 Effective Date Period During which Act Shall be Effective This act shall become effective immediately upon its passage by the General Assembly and its approval by the Governor and shall remain in effect as to school districts of the second third and fourth classes until the first day of July one thousand nine hundred thirty-five and as to school districts of the first class until the first day of January one thousand nine hundred and thirty-six

Section 13 Inconsistent Provisions All acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby superseded for the period during which this act shall be in effect

On the question,

Will the House adopt the report of the Committee of Conference?

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker and ladies and gentlemen of the House, the conference report which is laid before you is a unanimous report on the part of the conferees of the Senate and the House, but I deem it my duty, as Chairman of the Committee on Education, to make a very short statement to the House as to the situation of this bill.

Every member of the House undoubtedly knows this bill does not in any way affect the money that we give to the school districts. There is no financial question in it so far as our contributions, our subsidies to the districts are concerned.

The bill deals with the problem of allowing the school districts to put their own house in order.

There are two changes in the bill as passed by the House, both of which were insisted upon by the Senate, and which the House conferees have unanimously agreed upon.

First, the Senate insisted upon putting in the bill, and very properly so, and I think it should, and I speak for all the conferees on the part of the House, that the bill is strengthened by that provisiosn—put in the provision that the teacher could not be cut until the district had cut all other employes of the district equitably, and as they cut the teacher, the larger salary to receive the larger cut, and the smaller salary to receive the smaller cut. In other words, there are in Pennsylvania many teachers who are above and beyond the Edmonds Act, who receive salaries very much larger than the amount set out in the Edmonds Act. The Senate and the Committee on Education of the Senate felt that it was unfair to cut the smaller teachers without cutting the higher priced teachers, and therefore they inserted and we accepted the provision, which you will find in the bill, which said that the cuts of the teachers under the Edmonds Act could not be made until the higher priced teachers and other employes had received an equitable cut. We believe that it is fair and right, we believe that the Senate is right in what they have done and it has the unanimous endorsement of the conferees.

I just want to say one other thing, and I think it is fair for me, as Chairman of the Committee on Education, to explain to the House why they did it, and that is the provision that returns to the bill the provision that before any reductions are to be made the budget must be submitted to some reviewing authority. When it passed the House, in response to the request of many members of the House, we made that reviewing authority the court of common pleas in the counties. When the conferees met with the Senate, the Senate conferees insisted that that would cause confusion, that the matter would be delayed from time to time by being placed on the argument list, and that it would be much quicker, much simplier, much better for the teachers and much more equitable if the reviewing authority was the Superintendent of Public Instruction. That amendment the Senate insisted on and the House conferees were obliged to agree with them.

So, there are two changes. The one change that has been made in the bill requires that the other employes be cut when the teachers are cut, and the change which makes the Superintendent of Public Instruction the reviewing authority.

I am not going to say anything further to this House. This matter has been considered and has been debated back and forth by the House, but I do want to assure you once more that after all the work we have done in this session, it is absolutely essential that we pass it, in order that the schools may be put in that kind of condition where they will be able to run through the next year. If we do not pass it we will have half of our districts closed, and there will be many teachers out of employment.

I ask the members of the House to vote aye and pass the conference report

Mr. LONG. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from McKean, Mr. Wilson.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from McKean, Mr. Wilson, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. LONG. Mr. Speaker, is it not true that the objections to this bill in the House at the time we passed on it were based on the fact that the State Council of Education did not have the power to make these additional cuts?

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, I think that the bill received voted in the House from members who believed that it would be better to have the reviewing authority in the Court of Common Pleas, but in answer to the gentleman's question, let me say this.

Mr. LONG. Mr. Speaker, did not many members believe it would have been better to have the Department of Education take care of the cuts?

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the gentleman, let me say to you that the conferees were all very much impressed by the arguments of the conferees of the Senate; if it remained in the courts, it would be put on the argument list and might be continued from time to time and would be subject possibly to political control, and that in the hands of the Superintendent of Public Instruction it possibly would shorten the time.

Mr. LONG. Mr. Speaker, is it not also true that as a result of the conferees' action these cuts are now regulated by the Council of Education and that the objectionable feature of the bill, which so many members of the House found objectionable, is still in the bill?

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, providing that when they want to reduce the teachers' salary, they will take their budget and submit it to the Superintendent of Public Instruction, is now in the bill, and the conferees were not able to get it out.

Mr. SARIG. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the bill in its present form, as amended by the Senate and agreed to by the Conference Committee, is a much better bill than in the form in which it passed the House.

For that reason I shall vote for the conference report.

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the Report of the Committee of Conference?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken.

Mr. LONG. Mr. Speaker, I ask for a verification of the roll.

The roll was verified and was as follows:

YEAS—97

Less than the majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the negative and the report of the Committee of Conference was not adopted.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

The SPEAKER. "When either House disagrees to a conference report the matter is left in the position it was in before the conference was asked and the amendments in disagreement come up for further action." The Chair is reading from Jefferson's Manual.

The question before the House now is:

Will the House concur in the amendments made by the Senate and insisted upon by the Senate?

APPOINTMENT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE ON HOUSE BILL No. 1374

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, I move that the House insist upon its non-concurrence to the amendments made and insisted upon by the Senate and that a Committee of Conference be appointed.

The motion was agreed to.

The SPEAKER. The Chair appoints as a Committee of Conference on House Bill No. 1374, Messrs. Wilson, Hutton and Zimmerman.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, is the Howell Resolution still within the jurisdiction of the House?

The SPEAKER. The Chair informs the gentleman that the Howell Resolution is still in the possession of the House.

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, do I understand that the House will reconvene at 8.30 o'clock tonight; is that correct?

The SPEAKER. That is correct.

Mr. COHEN. I will ask, Mr. Speaker, that the Howell Resolution be retained in the jurisdiction of the House until I make a motion on that resolution.

The SPEAKER. The Chair will grant the request.

SENATE MESSAGE

RESOLUTION FOR CONCURRENCE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, presented an extract from the Journal of the Senate, which was read as follows:

In the Senate, April 19, 1933.

On the fourteenth day of June 1777, the Congress of the United States, by resolution, enacted that "the flag of the United States, be thirteen stripes, alternating red and white, and that the Union be thirteen stars, white in a blue field, representing a new constellation."

Patriotic citizens and various organizations have for many years been observing that day as Flag Day, and by holding and fostering the holding of services at which love of flag and country were emphasized in addresses have endeavored to inculcate into the minds and hearts of future citizens a sincere devotion to our flag and the country for which it stands.

A true regard and respect for our flag and the law it symbolizes is the basis of true patriotism without which the Nation cannot long endure.

The teaching to the youth of our country of the origin, development and meaning of the flag, of what it stands for and what it typifies is more important than any other teaching; therefore be it

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur), That this Legislature hereby suggests to the Superintendnt of Public Instruction the holding in every public school in the Commonwealth of Flag Day excercises on an appropriate day in each year to be selected by the Superintendent of Public Instruction.

That it is further suggested the Department of Public Instruction prepare and submit to the board of school directors of each school district within the Commonwealth an appropriate program best suited to the various grades with suggestions as to how such programs can best be rendered, with the idea of developing in each pupil a proper realization of the meaning of our flag and an idealization of all it symbolizes; and

That a copy of this resolution be forthwith forwarded by the Secretary of the Senate to the Superintendent of Public Instruction.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for its concurrence.

On the question,

Will the House concur in the resolution of the Senate?

It was concurred in.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

SENATE MESSAGE

AMENDED HOUSE BILL RETURNED FOR CONCURRENCE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, returned bill from the House of Representatives numbered and entitled as follows:

HOUSE BILL No. 1934.

An Act providing for receipt by the Commonwealth of personal property bequeathed to the Commonwealth; providing for the vesting of title in the Commonwealth of real estate devised to the Commonwealth, the custody, repairs, leasing and sale thereof by the Department of Property and Supplies with approval of the Department fo Justice; and providing the payment of costs of repair of such property.

With the information that the Senate has passed the same with amendments, in which the concurrence of the House of Representatives is requested.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the amendments.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend title, page 1, line 4, by striking out the syllable "re-"; also line 5, by striking out the syllable "pairs," and inserting in lieu thereof the word "repair."

On the question,

Will the House concur in the amendments made by the Senate?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, April 19, 1933.

To the Honorable, the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

The two subjects before the General Assembly in which the people of Pennsylvania are most vitally interested are relief for the unemployed and relief for the local taxpayer, as I pointed out at the opening of the session.

As to relief for the unemployed, something has been done for April and May, but nothing beyond that time. As to relief for the local taxpayer, nothing has been done at all.

We are nearing the end of the sixteenth week of this session. It seems to me, therefore, highly necessary that we should take stock of the situation as it affects relief for the unemployed and the local taxpayer.

It is equally necessary to take stock of what remains to be done before the present session will have performed its duty to the people of Pennsylvania.

RELIEF FOR THE UNEMPLOYED

When you convened I advised you that the least amount which you could safely appropriate and raise for relief was $20,000,000. The rapidly increasing demand for relief and the fact that we are now spending at the rate of almost $100,000,000 a year for food alone, has made it clear that additional funds must be provided.

If the Federal Government will continue as in the past to supply not less than half of our relief funds, we are required to provide in round numbers $50,000,000 to take care of relief needs for the next twelve months.

Of this amount $25,000,000 can be provided through a bond issue, which has passed two sessions of the General Assembly and will be voted upon by the people next fall.

When this session began I point out a way to raise $20,000,000 for relief without new taxes. Bills were accordingly introduced to achieve this result. Not one of them has even been reported out of committee.

For your convenience I present a list of these bills, of the committees where they lie, and of the amount of relief which would be provided if they were passed:

House Bill 21 and House Bill 1059 each provides for the collection of the four mill personal property tax by the Department of Revenue, guarantees to the counties as much as they have been collecting themselves, and divides the rest between the counties and the State. House Bill 21 is in the Committee on Counties. House Bill 1059 is in the Committee on Ways and Means. Either bill, if passed, would provide the State during the next biennium with $13,000,000

House Bill No. 1570 equalizes taxes on foreign corporations so that they would pay substantially the equivalent of the capital stock tax imposed on domestic corporations. This bill is in the Committee on Ways and Means. If passed it would provide the State during the next biennium with $3,000,000.

House Bill 19 provides for collecting the mercantile tax directly by the Department of Revenue. This bill is in the Committee on Ways and Means. If passed it would produce for the State during the next biennium in economies and greater collections, $1,700,000.

House Bill 1330 authorizes the Department of Revenue to collect all inheritance taxes directly. It is in the Committee on Ways and Means. It passed it would produce for the State during the next biennium in economies and greater collections, $2,300,000. Total, $20,000,000.

I have repeatedly announced that I would not insist on my plan but would accept any other reasonable plan which did not involve new taxes or the pillaging of the Motor License Fund.

The only substitutes which have been proposed are:

1. Further to reduce State expenditures below the $60,000,000 of savings incorporated in the budget. Such reductions cannot be made without hurting the State Government. Nevertheless, I have agreed to cooperate with the Legislature in making additional reductions of $6,000,000. A number of the bills required for this purpose have been passed. Others have not.

2. A tax on beer. At first the Administration suggested a tax at the rate of one cent per pint, or $2.48 per barrel. This, it was estimated would produce a revenue of $15,000,000 for the biennium. The beer lobby contended that this tax would prevent the sale of a five cent glass of beer, and demanded that the rate of tax be cut in half. The beer lobby has since blocked the passage of any valid legislation on this subject.

At the rate of $2.48 a barrel the State is losing at least $20,000 every day. At the rate of $1.24 per barrel the loss is at least $10,000 daily.

A careful check-up shows that five cent beer is very scarce. The prevailing price is ten cents a glass. At ten cents a glass beer can easily stand a State tax of $2.48 per barrel, in addition to the Federal tax of $5.00 per barrel. The beer tax bill is House Bill No. 2096. It is pickeled in the Committee on Ways and Means.

A bond issue for $25,000,000 for State expenses has passed two sessions. The people will vote upon it this fall. It was agreed between the leaders of the General Assembly and the Reconstruction Finance Corporation that this bond issue should be devoted to relief. But no bill to that effect was introduced until Monday of this week.

This bill—Senate Bill 1351—must be passed before the session adjourns if relief is to be provided without new taxation, and if the people are to know what they are voting for when the bond issue comes before them.

The net result in relief to date is the passage of appropriations of $7,000,000 for April and May under a promise from the leaders to raise the money required to meet it, but with no provision actually made to do so.

No funds whatever have been raised for unemployment relief after June 1st. Unless further steps are taken the unemployed will begin to starve within six weeks from today. And if they starve they cannot be expected to starve quietly.

RELIEF FOR THE LOCAL REAL ESTATE TAXPAYER

Thus far nothing whatever has been done for the relief of local taxpayers and especially the local real estate taxpayers. There has been much talk about reductions in State expenditures. But reductions in State expenditures have no bearing whatever on this question.

Not a single penny from any real estate tax goes to the State. Every cent of real estate tax goes to counties, cities, boroughs, townships, school districts, and poor districts.

At the beginning of this session I pointed out how the General Assembly could and should relieve local real estate taxpayers in the following ways:

By the State taking over the remaining 53,000 miles of second class township roads.

The bill to do so is Senate Bill 541. It has not passed the Senate and has not come before the House.

The saving to local taxpayers in two years would be $18,000,000.

To collect the personal property tax through the Department of revenue, as already outlined. The saving to local real estate taxpayers in two years would be $13,000,000

To put all poor districts on a county unit basis. House bill 1396 for this purpose is still in the Committee on Counties. It would save local real estate taxpayers in two years at least $4,000,000.

By reducing the number of third and fourth class school districts from more than 2,600 to not more than 500. This proposal was embodied in the School Code—House Bill No. 690. It has not been reported out of committee.

The saving to local real estate taxpayers in two years would be $6,300,000.

To suspend temporarily the automatic increase in teachers' salaries and enabling local school boards to reduce such salaries not more than 10% when the boards are financially unable to continue on the present basis.

This would save local taxpayers in two years $24,000,000.

No bill for this purpose has yet reached my desk.

The total savings under this plan to local real estate tax payers in two years would amount to $65,300,000.

In closing, I repeat that relief for the unemployed has been provided for two months only, but for local real estate taxpayers, the hardest hit of all taxpayers in this Commonwealth, not one cent of relief has been provided.

This amazing neglect of the folks back home does not lie at my door.

GIFFORD PINCHOT.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2112, (Senate Bill No. 77), entitled:

An Act to amend the act, approved the eleventh day of June, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine (P. L. 148), entitled "An act to require all magistrates and other officials in cities of the first, second and third class, authorized to take acknowledgements and administer oaths, to perform such service free of charge for soldiers and widows of soldiers, when making affidavit to papers for the purpose of drawing pensions," extending the provisions of the act to all officers taking oath, and to papers other than those connected with pensions.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time House Bill No. 1443, Senate Bill No. 386, Printer's No. 128, on page 15 of today's calendar, bill on third reading postponed.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. Woodside,

The House resumed the consideration on third reading of House Bill No. 1443, (Senate Bill No. 386), entitled:

An Act to amend section one of the act approved the ninth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (P. L. 795), entitled "An act to fix the salaries of district attorneys in counties having a population of less than one million inhabitants."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer an amendment at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk for information.

The Clerk read the amendment as follows:

Amend title, page 1, last line of title, by inserting after the word "inhabitants" the following "fixing the compensation of district attorneys in all counties of the fifth and sixth classes."

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the insertion of the amendment at this time? Is there and objection? The Chair hears none and the amendment will be inserted in accordance with the instructions of the House.

On the question.

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?.

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended lie over for printing.

STATEMENT BY MR. PHILIP STERLING

Mr. PHILIP STERLING asked and obtained unanimous consent to make the following statement:

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, at this period in almost every legislative session the work of the session is very greatly retarded through the necessity to recall bills from the Governor on account of typographical and printer's errors. This afternoon it was discovered that the desks were crowded with just such resolutions, and it is anticipated that the great volume of legislation which we have before us and which we will pass on to the Senate, will be very much retarded unless some means is found permanently to avoid this congestion.

I have prepared a measure which I believe will answer the situation, the provisions of which will make it possible for the Secretary of the Commonwealth, who by authority of law certifies all legislation when finally enacted and punctuates legislation, to make corrections in spelling and corrections of errors that are typographical and other technical corrections that do not change the meaning of the law. The action of the Secretary of the Commonwealth is subject to the approval of the Attorney General and the Director of the Legislative Reference Bureau.

Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent of the House that this measure be introduced at the present time.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sterling, asks unanimous consent to offer a bill at this time. Are there objections?

The Chair hears none, and the bill will be filed with the bill clerk.

The remarks of the gentleman will be spread in full upon the Journal.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2176 (Senate Bill No. 898), as follows:

An Act authorizing municipalities and townships to provide work for unemployed persons by renewing repairing and replacing sidewalks

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That any municipality except cities of the first class or township in order to provide work for unemployed persons may without charging the cost thereof to the property owner renew repair or rebuild any sidewalks within its corporate limits and for such purposes and for the purchase of necessary materials may expend any moneys which may have been provided or realized for unemployement relief purposes

Section 2 This act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Hoopes,	Wilson, L. M.,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed it without amendment.

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE

Mr. EMHARDT. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which the House concurred in Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 115 (Howell Resolution) be reconsidered.

Mr. WILLIAM A. WALKER. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Emhardt, vote on the concurrence of this resolution?

Mr. EMHARDT. Mr. Speaker, I voted in the majority.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Walker, vote on the concurrence of this resolution?

Mr. WILLIAM A. WALKER. Mr. Speaker, I voted in the majority.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House concur in the resolution of the Senate?

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I understand that the resolution upon which we are voting is the so-called Howell Resolution?

The SPEAKER. The gentleman is informed that that is correct.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I therefore ask for a roll call.

Mr. RHODES. Mr. Speaker, I second the request for a roll call.

QUESTION OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. BENNETT. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of parliamentary inquiry and for information.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Bennett, will state his question of parliamentary inquiry and information.

Mr. BENNETT. Mr. Speaker, if this resolution is concurred in, and some say it is unconstitutional absolutely, would it still be necessary for the individual members of this House to signify their willingness to have that reduction made in writing, and if so, is there any guarantee that all of the members so voting for it will signify their willingness to have that money deducted from their pay.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Bennett, is informed that he is raising a question of constitutionality, which the Chair will not decide, but which is a matter that he will put before the House. Does the gentleman desire the matter cleared up?

Mr. BENNETT. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, what I am inquiring about is this; if this resolution is adopted, and if twenty or thirty or forty percent of the members of this House, if it is constitutional, will signify their willingness over their own handwriting to have the money deducted from their checks; if that happens, sixty percent of the members of this House will leave their money here and forty percent will take it along home.

The SPEAKER. That is correct.

Mr. BENNETT. Mr. Speaker, I would like to inquire further; if the measure is constitutional and that money is so deducted, what disposition will be made of it?

The SPEAKER. The gentleman is informed that it will remain in the State Treasury in the General Fund.

Mr. BENNETT. Mr. Speaker. I would inquire further, is it possible for that money of the individual members, if this measure should be constitutional, or by the election or the willingness of the individual member, is it possible that that money could go back to his own county and the advantage of the constituency that we represent, all of us.

The SPEAKER. No.

Mr. BENNETT. No?

The SPEAKER. No.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I have some question as to whether it is in order to discuss the resolution at this time, but I do feel that the importance of the resolution requires me to rise and ask the House to bear with me just a few moments.

The Howell Resolution has been the basis of all of the figures that have been used in the cuts that have been made. It has been the basis of the figures that have been used by the Appropriations Committee in making up the Appropriation Bill.

The question as to whether a contribution shall be made by each member of the Legislature under this resolution is purely a voluntary question, and therefore it seems to me should not bother us as to what the other fellow does, but it is purely a question as to what each and every one of us feels he ought to do under the circumstances.

Let me say this to you members of the Legislature. We have passed measures here to reduce different salaries. In House Bill No. 22 we have reduced salaries, and in other measures that have been before this session we have cut salaries. We have passed a bill to reduce the salaries of the members of the Legislature in the next session, and it seems to me that we cannot with good grace grumble against this resolution on some technical ground, or on some plea that perhaps someone else will not abide by it. It is entirely a voluntary contribution on the part of the elective officers.

Let me point out another thing. On your desk is a communication from the Governor in which he talks about the amount of money that will be necessary. Within the last couple of days the Governor has issued a statment in which he has said practically this, if not exactly these words.——

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews, will state his point of order.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I understand that the resolution is not debatable.

The SPEAKER. The Chair rules that it is because the Chair has not yet ordered a roll call.

Mr. TURNER. The Governor said that all that stands between the State of Pennsylvania and bankruptcy is the fourteen million dollars of the Dorrance Estate money that remains in the treasury of Pennsylvania. He also said that it will be necessary for us to raise, for the coming year, one hundred million dollars for unemployment relief. That is for only one year, not for the biennium. He points out that it may be possible to raise twenty-five million dollars in that method and twenty-five million dollars from a bond issue which is to be voted on in next November. That means that we would have fifty million of the one hundred million dollars, and that the rest would come from the Reconstruction Finance Corporation. Now, members of the House, that means by the summer of 1934 there will be no money for emergency relief, and if it is found it be necesary to carry on at that time at the present rate of from six to seven million dollars a month, it will then be necessary for us to return here, and the only thing we can do then, unless we find enough savings at this time, and enough means of increasing the revenues beyond that which we expect to receive, the only thing we can do is to place taxes on the people of Pennsylvania. I think the people of the State of Pennsylvania ought to understand that and understand fully that the only tning that will remain to the people of Pennsylvania is taxation, and I think they ought to understand it, and I think you ought to have that in your minds when you vote on this resolution.

We are hoping to save in salary cuts somewhere around six million dollars. That is only a little bit toward the tremendous amount that we have to receive.

When you consider what all of this means to the schools of Pennsylvania, which, as the Chairman of the Education Committee has told you, will have to be closed by next December and when you see that we are cutting everywhere we can and sharpening the pencil and cutting at every corner in order to save taxes, so that we may in some way have money enough to carry on the government of this State it does become important, and extremely important, for the members of this Legislature to consider this resolution carefully when they vote on it. It means nothing to me personally—I have no desire to surrender any part of my pay any more than any other member has. It has not been a pleasant task to cut salaries as we have done in the bills that we have voted for, but there is a plain and clear duty on every member of this House, and on me. As I said before, it is not a personal matter with me. If this measure be defeated by your vote, it is up to you and up to each and every one of you, and you are responsible only to your constituents and to your own conscience. I shall vote my way and hold no grudge against anyone, whichever way it goes. I do believe the members of this House should not stand before the people of Pennsylvania and say to the people of Pennsylvania that they are going out and say to others, "You take a cut, but we are unwilling to do anything ourseleves."

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I consider this resolution not only unfair but the most hypocritical resolution that we have had before us in this session. It would be bad enough if it was in its original form, which as I understand was unconstitutional as to ourselves and as to the judges and the elected officials of the State, so that we would all have to agree to it or it would not apply to us. Were not satisfied with that, we had to add a special clause that, "the amount of the compensation of the members of the General Assembly not already paid over be reduced by forty per cent: Provided, That no such reduction shall be made as to any member unless he shall agree thereto in writing sent to the Chief Clerk of the House."

The unfair thing about this thing is that it provides that the little fellow who is getting two dollars ten cents a day, or seven hundred sixty dollars a year is to be cut and there are no ifs or ands or buts about it, and there is no consent on his part to it, he is to be cut under this resolution, and the resolution says it is the sense of this General Assembly that the officers employing these people who are getting these daily wages over two dollars, down to seven hundred and fifty dollars a year shall cut those wages. No doubt they will take it seriously and the little fellow will get the cut whereas the big fellow cannot constitutionally be cut unless he agrees to it. In other words the little fellow has to take his and like it, and the big fellow takes it or not as he sees fit.

According to the newspapers of the last few days the State Treasurer, who, as I understand, has been one of the chief advocates of this economy program has increased the pay of fifteen employes in his office in order to meet this thing so he can cut it afterwards. Now, if that is not hypocrisy I don't know what is. I don't believe in measures that put the little fellow on the block and make them stand the gaff and let the rest of us stand out from under. I have voted most consistently against cuts for the little fellow throughout this session, and I propose to vote against this resolution.

Mr. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Hoopes.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Hoopes, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HOOPES. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I understood the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Hoopes, to say that the pay of an employe getting $760 would be cut.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, under this resolution, if the employe gets over seven hundred and fifty dollars, he will be cut.

Mr. SCOTT. How much would he be cut, if he gets $760?

Mr. HOOPES. He would be cut very little, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SCOTT. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask how much the cut would be?

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, the cut would be very little, but he gets a cut, but the big fellow getting the big salary don't get a cut unless he agrees to it.

Mr. BENNETT. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I arose to a point of inquiry and information a moment ago on this measure. I think there is a good bit of hypocrisy about the wording of this resolution in not putting the big fellow and the little fellow on the same equality. I believe that the members of this House ought to subscribe to this. There are no members here who have one-half as high a consideration or a more exalted opinion of the work done by the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Talbot, than myself. He needs no praise of mine.

Unfortunately I am neither a Solon, nor a parliamentarian nor a constitutional lawyer, but I do say what I said a little while ago, that this resolution is fraught with some importance, that this act means that I have to go to the office of the Chief Clerk and signify my willingness to take this cut. I, as an individual member of this House have no guarantee advanced, implied or expressed or expected that this body will conform to that wish or desire or necessity, and I think something more practical, something more direct, something more of a direct appeal to the members of this House is in order to get a complete consensus of opinion of the members of this House, of the individuals, whether they will signify their willingness to have a cut made as anticipated and requested in this resolution.

I don't think that it is fair to put it over as a resolution and then put it up to the individual. I think that the horse and the car are transposed. I think that the question ought to be put to the members of this body first and have a definite and absolute concensus of their opinion, either in the Ways and Means Committee as a revenue measure or as a body itself, and find out the consensus of opinion rather than pass a resolution of saying that you have to march down to the Chief Clerk's office if you want to and signify your willingness.

There is no argument in standing behind the little fellow getting a cut of the two dollars a year.

I am willing to take a cut here and now, but I want it done with the thorough understanding that the two hundred and seven women and men who are members of this House are all on the same basis and not with the proviso and the loophole that he or she can either sign it and accept or leave it unsigned and go home. That is neither intelligent, constructive or practical.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I just rise for one word to answer the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Hoopes, about his statement in which he said that the amount of salary had been advanced on fifteen employes in the State Treasurer's Office in order that they might be placed in a position to take the cut if the cut comes. Let me point out that the State Treasurer goes out of office on the first day of May and that this act does not go into effect until the first day of June.

Mr. LONG. Mr. Speaker, if I am not out of order, I move, that unless a member answers to his name on the roll call his vote shall not be recorded.

The SPEAKER. The Chair so rules.

On the question recurring,

Will the House concur in the resolution of the Senate?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. Turner and Mr. Rhodes.

Mr. JOSEPH R. LYNCH. Mr. Speaker, I ask for a verification of the roll.

The SPEAKER. The roll will be verified.

The Clerk read the affirmative roll.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, did I hear the name of Mr. Lewis recorded as voting aye.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman is informed that that is correct.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, may I inform the Chair that Mr. Lewis was not in the Hall of the House at the time the roll was called, without submitting it to the desk in writing.

The SPEAKER. Is the gentleman from Lackawanna, Mr. Lewis, in the Hall of the House? The Chair hears no response, and the gentleman will not be recorded as voting.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, did I understand the name of Mr. Shugarts read on the affirmative roll?

The SPEAKER. The Chair informs the gentleman that that is right.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, Mr. Shugarts is not in the hall of the House, and was not at the time of the roll call.

Mr. WAY. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I am quite certain that Mr. Shugarts was here and voted aye on the question.

The SPEAKER. If the gentleman from Clearfield, Mr. Way, feels that way, Mr. Shugarts will be recorded as voting aye and will verify it when Mr. Shugarts returns to the hall of the House.

Mr. HEWITT. Mr. Speaker, I heard Mr. Shugarts very plainly vote aye.

The SPEAKER. The question is settled until Mr. Shugarts returns to the hall of the House.

The affirmative roll is verified and stands verified.

The Clerk read the negative roll.

Mrs. PENNOCK. Mr. Speaker, I understand that I am recorded as voting in the affirmative. I distinctly voted "no."

The SPEAKER. The Chair informs the lady from Philadelphia, Mrs. Pennock, that she is recorded as voting "aye." The verification has been made and affirmed and the Chair has no alternative from that decision.

Mrs. PENNOCK. Mr. Speaker, I distinctly voted "no."

The SPEAKER. The Chair cannot, after having verified the affirmative roll, as much as the Chair may regret it, change that decision because the members' names were called on the affirmative roll and a hesitation was made so as give any member an opportunity to change.

The Chair desires to further state that he is not interested one way or the other as to the result of this resolution, and regrets that the Chair has been put in the position to so rule.

QUESTION OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, the lady from Philadelphia, Mrs. Pennock, says that she voted "no." A great number of us here heard her vote "no." Can her vote, by unanimous consent of this House, be now recorded as voting "no."

The SPEAKER. The Chair is of the opinion that this House by unanimous consent or by its majority action can do anything it desires.

VOTE RECORDED

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I therefore move that the vote of the lady from Philadelphia, Mrs. Pennock, who has told the House that she voted "no," and a number of persons within hearing of her voice say that she voted "no," be permitted to have her vote recorded in the manner in which she voted, to wit: "no."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

The SPEAKER. The lady will be recorded as voting "no."

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, in order that I may be sure that I am within the rules of the House, I desire to file a written challenge to the vote of Mr. Shugarts. I understand it must be in wrting.

The SPEAKER. If the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Hoopes, desires to file a written challenge to the vote of Mr. Shugarts, and he will send it to the desk, the Chair will withhold the decision until the challenge is sent to the desk.

CHALLENGE TO VOTE

Mr. HOOPES sent to the desk his challenge in writing to the vote of Mr. Shugarts, which challenge was subsequently withdrawn.

The SPEAKER. The negative roll is verified and stands verified. The roll is verified and stands verified.

The SPEAKER announced the result of the roll call to be ninety-five in the affirmative and ninety-six in the negative.

Mr. WAY. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, when I said that my colleague, Mr. Shugarts, of Clearfield, voted "aye," I thought he did. I heard someone voting "aye." I have learned since that Mr. Shugarts was not in his seat and I wish publicly to withdraw my statement.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Clearfield, Mr. Way, having been informed that the gentleman from Clearfield, Mr. Shugarts, was not in the hall of the House, the gentleman from Clearfield, Mr. Shugarts, will not be recorded as voting and the anouncement is made that the vote on the roll is changed to 94 in the affirmative and 96 in the negative.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2164 (Senate Bill No. 730), entitled:

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed it without amendment.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2293 (Senate Bill No. 1024), as follows:

An Act to provide for a convention to ratify or reject an amendment to the Constitution of the United States proposed by both Houses of Congress for the repeal of the eighteenth amendment to the said Constitution and for the prohibition of transportation importation delivery or use of intoxicating liquors in violation of the laws of states territories or possessions of the United States and to provide for the election of delegates to such convention

WHEREAS The Congress of the United States has proposed an amendment to the Constitution of the United States in the following language

JOINT RESOLUTION

Proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the United States

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled (two-third of each House concurring therein) That the following article is hereby proposed as an amendment to the Constitution of the United States which shall be valid to all intents and purposes as part of the Constitution when ratified by conventions in three-fourths of the several States

"Article

"Section 1 The eighteenth article of amendment to the Constitution of the United States is hereby repealed

"Section 2 The transportation or importation into any State territory or possession of the United States for delivery or use therein of intoxicating liquors in violation of the laws thereof is hereby prohibited

"Section 3 This article shall be inoperative unless it shall have been ratified as an amendment to the Constitution by conventions in the several States as prescribed in the Constitution within seven years from the date of the submission hereof to the States by the Congress"

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That a convention shall be held in this State for the purpose of ratifying or rejecting the proposed amendment to the Constitution of the United States recited in the preamble hereof An election shall be held at the same time as the municipal election in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three for the election of delegates to such convention

Section 2 At such election all persons qualified as electors shall be entitled to vote

Section 3 Except as in this act otherwise provided such election shall be conducted and the results thereof ascertained and certified in the same manner as in the case of the election of Representatives in Congress of the United States at large at general elections and all provisions of the laws of this State relative to elections except so far as inconsistent with this act are hereby made applicable to such election The expenses incident to such election of delegates to the said convention shall be paid by the respective counties

Section 4 The number of delegates to be elected at such convention shall be fifteen all of whom shall be elected from the State at large

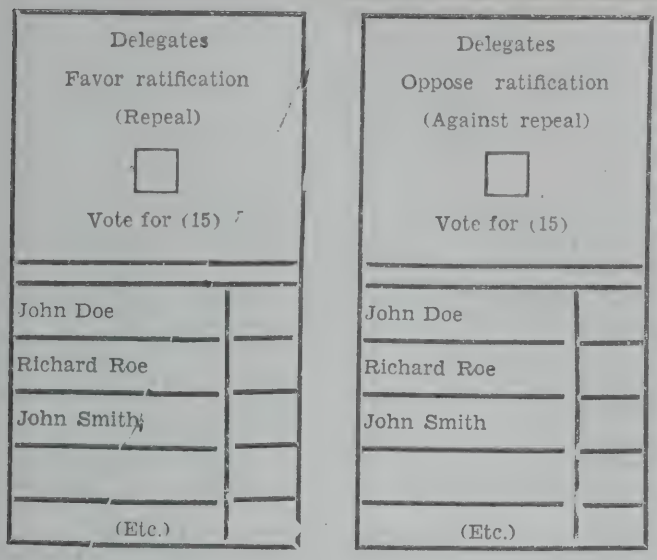
Section 5 Candidates for the office of delegate to the convention shall be qualified electors of the state nominations shall be by petition and not otherwise A single petition may place in nomination any number of candidates for delegate not exceeding the total number of such delegates to be elected and nomination petitions shall be signed by at least two thousand resident voters in each of at least ten congressional districts in the State as apportioned by the act of June twenty-seventh one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (Pamphlet Laws one thousand four hundred sixteen) entitled "An act to apportion the State into congressional districts" Nomination shall be without party or official designation but the nominating petitions shall contain a statement by each nominee to the effect that he favors ratification or that he opposes ratification of the proposed amendment No nominating petition for delegate shall contain the name of any nominee whose position as stated therein is different from that of any other nominee as stated therein Nominating petitions shall be prepared and furnished by the Secretary of the Commonwealth and except as above provided shall be substantially in the form provided by the election laws for nomination petitions for candidates at primaries for the office of Representatives in Congress of the United States at large Any number of petitions may be circulated for a candidate or group of candidates and when filed shall be considered as one petition for that candidate or group of candidates Signatures shall not be obtained on any petitions prior to one hundred and twenty days before the date of the election

All nomination petitions shall be filed with the Secretary of the Commonwealth not less than sixty (60) days before the date of the election After the last day for filing petitions the Secretary of the Commonwealth shall proceed to ascertain the nominees by selecting two groups of nominees

The two groups of nominees shall be the fifteen having the largest number of signers to their petitions among those favoring ratification and the fifteen having the largest number of signers to their petitions among those opposing ratification

Ties shall be decided by lot drawn by the Secretary of the Commonwealth

Within thirty days after the last day for filing petitions the Secretary of the Commonwealth shall certify the nominees to the county commissioners of the respective counties



Section 6 The election shall be by ballot separate from any ballot to be used at the same election which shall be prepared by the Secretary of the Commonwealth in substantially the following form and shall be furnished to the various election districts by the county commissioners of the respective counties

CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION BALLOT

(Copy of Amendment)

INSTRUCTIONS TO VOTERS A cross mark X in the square at the head of any one of the two columns on this ballot votes for all candidates for delegates named in that column Do not mark a cross mark in more than one square at the head of a column

If you do not desire to vote for the group of nominees in any one column mark a cross mark X after the name or names of the candidates of your choice to the number indicated on the ballot

Each elector may vote for fifteen candidates for delegate A cross mark X in the square at the head of any one of the two columns on the ballot shall count as a vote for each of the candidates for delegate appearing in that column If an elector does not desire to vote by a cross mark X in the square at the head of a column then he may indicate the fifteen candidates for delegates of his choice by marking a cross mark X in the square opposite their respective names or he may insert the name of any candidate or candidates for whom he desires to vote in the appropriate blank spaces provided on the ballot.

When an elector votes in the square at the head of a column his power to vote is exhausted and if he thereafter inserts any cross mark X in any other square at the head of another column or after the name of a candidate in any column other than the one at the head of which he has placed his cross mark X his ballot shall be void

Section 7 The fifteen candidates receiving the highest number of votes in the entire state at said election shall be the delegates to said convention Any vacancy in the membership of the convention caused by the death or disability of any delegate or for any other cause shall be filled by appointment of a person by the majority vote of the group of delegates favoring ratification or opposing ratification as the case may be to which the absent delegate belonged

Section 8 The delegates to the convention shall serve without compensation and shall meet at the capitol on the twenty-eighth day after their election at twelve o'clock noon in the hall of the Senate and shall thereupon constitute a convention to pass upon the question of whether or not the proposed amendment shall be ratified

Section 9 The convention shall be the judge of the election and qualification of its members The convention shall be called to order by the Lieutenant Governor who shall be the chairman thereof but who shall not have any vote unless elected as a delegate The secretary of the Senate shall be the secretary of the convention and the chief clerk of the Senate and the chief clerk of the House of Representatives shall be the tellers of the convention The secretary of the Senate shall provide a reporter or reporters for the convention a sergeant-at-arms and one page whose compensation shall be paid out of the appropriation made by this act upon the approval of the Lieutenant Governor and secretary of the Senate In case of the inability of any of the persons herein named to be present the convention shall name some one in his stead

The Secretary of the Commonwealth shall as soon as the convention is called to order present the election returns of delegates which shall be opened and read after which the roll of names of those elected as shown by the returns shall be called and if any elected delegate is absent the vacancy shall then be filled as in this act provided

Before proceeding with the business of the convention the delegates shall take the constitutional oath of office which shall be administered by a judge of the court of common pleas

Section 10 The convention shall keep a journal of its proceedings in which shall be recorded the vote of each delegate on the question of ratification of the proposed amendment and the debates thereon Upon final adjournment the journal shall be filed with the Secretary of the Commonwealth

Section 11 If the convention shall agree by vote of a majority of the total number of delegates to the ratification of the proposed amendment a certificate to that effect shall be executed by the president and secretary of the convention and transmitted to the Secretary of the Commonwealth of this State who shall transmit the certificate under the great seal of the Commonwealth to the Secretary of State of the United States

Section 12 If at or about the time of submitting any such amendment Congress shall by statue prescribe the manner in which the conventions shall be constituted and shall not except from the provisions of such statute such states as may theretofore have provided for constituting such conventions the preceding provisions of this act shall be inoperative and the convention shall be constituted and shall operate as the said act of Congress shall direct and all officers of the State who may by the said statute be authorized or directed to take any action to constitute such a convention for this State are hereby authorized and directed to act thereunder and in obedience thereto with the same force and effect as if acting under a statute of this State

Section 13 The sum of one thousand dollars ($1,000) or so much thereof as may be necessary is hereby specifically appropriated to the Secretary of the Senate for the payment of the compensation of the reporter or reporters sergeant-at-arms and page and for the payment of all other incidental and necessary expenses in connection with said convention

Section 14 This act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed it without amendment.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2121 (Senate Bill No. 763), entitled:

An Act to amend sections one and four of the act approved the fourteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five (Pamphlet Laws seven hundred four) entitled "An act authorizing the Secretary of Highways with the approval of the Governor to establish the width and lines of State Highways for future construction where it appears uneconomical to widen existing highways providing for acknowledgment by the Secretary of Highways and recording of plans therefor in the proper county and providing further that no allowance shall be made for buildings or improvements erected or made within the limits of any such highway and providing for the payment of damages" by providing for the maintenance of the existing highway.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. YEAKEL. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer amendments at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk for information.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend section 1, page 3, line two, by striking out the word "the."

Amend section 1, page 3, line 2, by striking out the strike-out brackets around the word "any."

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the insertion of the amendments at this time? Is there any objection? The Chair hears none and the amendments will be inserted in accordance with the instructions of the House.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended lie over for printing.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2171 (Senate Bill No. 856), entitled:

An Act authorizing cities of the third class to provide, by ordinance, for the payment for public work or improvements heretofore made for or furnished to the city, where no legal or valid contract was entered into as required by law.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed it without amendment.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2093, (Senate Bill No. 679), entitled:

An Act to amend section twenty-nine of an act approved the thirty-first day of May, one thousand nine hundred and eleven (Pamphlet Laws four hundred sixty-eight), entitled "An act providing for the establishment of a State Highway Department, by the appointment of a State Highway Commissioner, two Deputy State Highway Commissioners, chief engineer, chief draughtsman, superintendents of highways, and a staff of assistants and employes; defining their duties and the jurisdiction of the State Highway Department, and fixing salaries of commissioner and deputies and other appointees; providing for taking over from the counties or townships of the Commonwealth certain existing public roads connecting county seats; principal cities, and towns and extending to the State line; describing and defining same by route numbers as the State Highways of the Commonwealth; providing for the improvement, maintenance and repair of said State Highways solely at the expense of the Commonwealth, and relieving the several townships or counties from any further obligation and expense to improve or maintain the same, and relieving said townships or counties of authority over same; requiring boroughs and incorporated towns to maintain certain State Highways wholly and in part; requiring the State Highway Commissioner to make maps to be complete records thereof; conferring authority on the State Highway Commissioner; providing for the payment of damages in taking of property, or otherwise, in the improvement thereof; providing for purchase or acquiring of turnpikes or toll-roads forming all or part of any State Highway, and procedure therein; providing for work of improvement of State Highways to be done by contract, except where the State Highway Commissioner decides the work be done by the State; providing aid by the State to counties and townships desiring the same in the improvement of township or county roads; refining highways and State-aid highways; providing method of application for State aid in the improvement maintenance and repair of township or county roads and prescribing the contents of township, county, borough, or incorporated town petitions, providing for percentage of cost of improvement or repairs to be paid by State, county, township, borough, or incorporated town, and requiring contracts by counties, townships, boroughs, and incorporated towns with Commonwealth governing same; providing for the minimum width of State Highways and State-aid highways, and kind of materials to be used in the improvement; providing for payment of cost of improvement and repairs; providing penalty for injuring or destroying State Highways; making appropriations to carry out the provisions of the act; and providing for the repeal of certain acts relating to Highway Department and improvement of roads, and of all acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith; and providing that existing contracts are not affected by provisions of this act," by relieving townships of the duty to contribute towards the maintenance of certain State-aid highways; and discharging certain existing obligations therefor.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed it with amendments in which the concurrence of the Senate is requested.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2066 (Senate Bill No. 498), entitled:

An Act authorizing counties, cities, boroughs, townships of the first and second class and school districts to issue and sell bonds for certain purposes and for a certain period of time providing for a trust fund and a sinking fund for the payment thereof and defining the duties of the officers and governing bodies of the said municipalities or quasi municipalities in relation to said funds and fixing a penalty for the violation thereof

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That to meet the emergency occasioned by the extraordinary decrease in tax collections due to business depression and widespread unemployment it shall be lawful for any county city borough township of the first and second class and school districts to issue and sell at not less than par bonds bearing interest at a rate not exceeding six per cent (6%) per annum payable in not more than ten (10) years from the date of said bonds in an amount not exceeding eighty per cent (80%) of the amount of uncollected taxes due on real estate at the date of the enactment of the ordinance or the adoption of the resolution authorizing such action Any subsequent borrowing under the provisions of this act shall be limited to an amount which when added to the amount or amounts previously borrowed shall not exceed eighty per cent (80%) of the amount of the uncollected taxes and the proceeds of any bonds created under the provisions of this act by any such municipality or quasi municipality shall be used only for the payment of the operating expenses of such municipality or quasi municipality

Section 2 For the purpose of creating a sinking fund for the payment of the principal and interest of the bonds created under the provisions of this act and any taxes covenanted to be paid thereon the governing bodies of the municipalities or quasi municipalities issuing same shall annually (until payment of the said bonds and the interest thereon and any taxes covenanted to be paid thereon be fully provided for) levy and collect in addition to the other taxes a tax sufficient to pay the interest and principal of said indebtedness and any taxes covenanted to be paid theron within (10) years from the date of said bonds Such taxes shall be called the "Emergency Sinking Fund Tax" and shall be paid into the treasury of such municipality or quasi municipality and shall be kept separate and distinct from all other funds in a fund to be called "Emergency Sinking Fund" and shall be applied to the redemption of said bonds and the payment of the interest and taxes if any thereon and to no other purpose whatsoever and said bonds when so redeemed shall be cancelled

Section 3 Each ordinance or resolution authorizing the issuing of said bonds shall recite an amount of the uncollected taxes then due at least equal to the amount equal to the proposed issue of bonds shall become a trust fund for the redemption of said bonds and the payment of the interest and taxes if any thereon and it shall be the duty of the secretary or clerk of the governing body to credit the Emergency Sinking Fund with such taxes and of the treasurer of such municipality or quasi municipality to deposit in the Emergency Sinking Fund immediately upon receipt thereof any and all said uncollected taxes provided that the amount of said uncollected taxes received and deposited in the Emergency Sinking Fund in any year may be deducted from the amount of the annual tax levied for the year following to be levied and collected for the redemption of said bonds and the payment of the interest and taxes if any thereon

Section 4 Any person who shall directly or indirectly apply or use any of said uncollected taxes to or for any purposes other than to deposit the same in the Emergency Sinking Fund shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in a sum not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000.00) or imprisoned for a term not exceeding one (1) year or either or both in the discretion of the court

Section 5 The trust fund and the emergency sinking fund covering each issue of bonds under the provisions of this act shall be alike numbered and in consecutive order and the amount thereof as well as the uncollected taxes due and collectible shall be deducted from the gross indebtedness in ascertaining the net indebtedness of such municipality or quasi municipality

Section 6 The temporary emergency power hereby granted shall be in addition to the powers granted to such municipalities or quasi municipalities to issue and create indebtedness under existing law

Section 7 Any bonds issued under the provisions of this act shall be issued in accordance with the provisions of the Constitution of this Commonwealth and the act approved the twentieth day of April one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four (Pamphlet Laws sixty-five) entitled "An act to regulate the manner of increasing the indebtedness of municipalities to provide for the redemption of the same and to impose penalties for the illegal increase thereof" as supplemented and amended and shall require the approval of the Department of Internal Affairs

Section 8 This act shall become effective immediately upon its approval by the Governor and remain in force and effect only for five (5) years thereafter

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed it with amendments in which the concurrence of the Senate is requested.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1460, (Senate Bill No. 489), entitled:

An Act establishing as State highways certain condemned or abandoned turnpikes, and turnpikes the companies or associations owning which have been dissolved, and requiring their construction, repair and maintenance as such.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. MASON. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer an amendment at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk for information.

The Clerk read the amendment as follows:

Amend Sec. 1, page 2, line 10, by inserting after the word "laws" the following: "Provided, That no turnpike shall be taken over by the Commonwealth under the provisions of this act if a contract for the improvement thereof has been entered into between a contractor and the Commonwealth, or local authorities, or both, until such contract shall have been completed."

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the insertion of the amendment at this time? It there any objection? The Chair hears none and the amendment will be inserted in accordance with the instructions of the House.

On the question.

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Baker,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed it without amendment.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2283 (Senate Bill No. 100), as follows:

An Act relating to the relief of the burden of local taxation making an appropriation out of the Motor License Fund providing for the allocation thereof to cities towns boroughs and townships prescribing the time manner basis and purposes for and upon which such said money shall be allocated and paid specifying the uses for which said moneys may be expended and imposing powers and duties upon the Department of Highways the Auditor General State Treasurer and on cities boroughs towns and townships and officers thereof and providing penalties

WHEREAS There are one hundred and eight thousand miles of streets and roads in Pennsylvania and

WHEREAS The users of the said one hundred and eight thousand miles of streets and roads pay in the form of the gasoline tax and motor license fees approximately seventy million dollars per annum and

WHEREAS The seventy million dollars thus collected from the users of all the streets and roads in the Commonwealth are being expended on only the thirty-three thousand miles of roads on the State system and

WHEREAS The remaining seventy-five thousand miles must be built and maintained primarily from funds raised through local taxes on real estate and

WHEREAS Because of the heavy traffic on the seventy-five thousand miles of city borough town first- and second-class township roads and streets the public officials thereof are unable to keep the said roads and streets in a fit condition for the saftey and convenience of the traveling public without further adding to the burden of the local taxpayer and

WHEREAS The cities towns boroughs first- and second-class township municipal divisions comprising the Commonwealth are in dire need of relief from the burden of local taxes and

WHEREAS An appropriation of nineteen million two-hundred fifty thousand dollars allocated to cities towns boroughs first and second-class townships of the Commonwealth on a mileage basis and in accordance with the burden of traffic carried thereon will aid in reducing the burden of the local taxpayer and result in the improvement of the streets and roads for the safety convenience and economical operation of motor vehicles therefore

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed it without amendment.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1462 (Senate Bill No. 507), entitled:

An Act fixing the salaries of directors of the poor in counties of the second class.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

MOTION TO RECOMMIT

Mr. STEEDLE. Mr. Speaker, I move you that this bill be placed on the postponed calendar.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Steedle.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Steedle, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. STEEDLE. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman from Allegheny, inform me as to the purpose of placing this bill on the postponed calendar.

Mr. STEEDLE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, in answer to the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. McClure, I will state the answer this way: I would like time to study this question. It refers to the Poor Directors of Allegheny County, and I understand that there is some objection to the bill and therefore, for the time being, I would like to have it postponed until I can get it ironed out in my mind.

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, for the benefit of the House, before you vote on the measure, I would like you to understand what it is that is attempted to be done by this bill.

The salary of the Poor Directors of Allegheny County was fixed by an act of assembly a number of years ago at twenty-five hundred dollars a year. Since the passage of that act the population of Allegheny County has changed which placed that act out of commission. Under the law as it now stands the directors of the poor would be entitled to a compensation of twenty-four hundred dollars per year. They have been receiving a salary of thirty-five hundred dollars per year with a misunderstanding as to what they were entitled to. All that this act would do would be simply to revamp the law and bring the law up-to-date under the present population and pay the directors of the poor of Allegheny County the fabulous sum of thirty-five hundred dollars a year.

I think that this is a fair bill and I see no necessity for any delay in the action on this bill.

I believe with the statement I have made the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Steedle, will understand the purpose of the bill and will withdraw his motion to postpone the bill and permit it to come up for final passage. If he persists in his motion to postpone it, I ask you to vote the motion down.

Mr. STEEDLE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I do not like to object to the remarks of the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. McClure, and particularly so, I do not want to take the time of the House to discuss this motion now, because we are on our way to clean up the calendar and adjourn.

I ask the member of this House and the other members of Allegheny County to oppose this bill, and I will say that I have no objections, after we are familiar with the bill, and we have had a chance to express ourselves, that it be brought out for action, but I ask you to postpone it for the present.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The SPEAKER declared the "noes" appear to have it,

Whereupon, a division was called for and fifty-six members voting in the affirmative and sixty-six in the negative, the question was determined in the negative and the motion was not agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. STEEDLE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. McClure, tells you that this is simply a clarififcation of the question of salaries that have been erroneously paid to the poor directors of Allegheny County. Now, if that is truthful, as the statement may appear, and I don't doubt the gentleman was sincere when he made the statement, I fail to understand why some citizen of Allegheny County has not objected to the fabulous sum, as stated by the gentleman from Allegheny, which is only thirty-five hundred dollars as against what he said the salary should be, twenty-two hundred or twenty-five hundred dollars. It is evident to me that it is a personal argument in Allegheny County between the poor directors on the one hand and the county commissioners office on the other hand, and the possibilities are that they don't want to expose their hand, but come down here to us of the Legislature and ask us to wash out their dirty linen that they may have the poor directors salary established in that county. It cannot be very wrong or some citizen of Allegheny County would have appealed to the courts and would have asked the courts to restrain the commissioners from paying the salary of thirty-five hundred dollars. I think this bill should be defeated since Allegheny County has paid its poor directors right along without any argument, and I don't think that we should be compelled to iron out the wrinkles or disputes between the county commissioners on the one hand and the poor directors on the other hand. I ask you to defeat this bill.

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, as I stated to the members of the House in my other remarks, under the Act of 1917 the salary of the poor directors was fixed at twenty-five hundred dollars a year. Since that act has been passed there have been two censuses taken. The population has changed. Under the law as it now exists and since the change of population, our poor director's salaries would revert back to the former law. They are being paid, I say, thirty-five hundred dollars, which is contrary to the law as it automatically exists today.

As far as my colleague, Mr. Steedle, referring to this as a matter of argument between the directors of the poor and the county commissioners of Allegheny County, he is misinformed. This bill is sponsored by Senator Mansfield, who is one of the County Commissioners of Allegheny County. He sponsored this bill so that the salaries of the directors of the poor in Allegheny County may be legally and correctly fixed at thirty-five hundred dollars. There is no ulterior motive in this bill and there is no difference between the Directors of the Poor and the County Commissioners of Allegheny County, but they come and ask you to pass this bill so that they may legally pay their Directors of the Poor thirty-five hundred dollars a year as a salary for public service rendered in office. I believe it is only a fair and meager salary for the services they perform. I ask you in justice to the citizens of Allegheny County to vote favorably for this bill.

Mr. HOFFMAN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, in regard to the remarks of the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Steedle, as to the question of difficulties between the County Commissioners and the Poor Directors of Allegheny County, I want to state to the members of the House that a member of the Poor Board of Allegheny County asked me last week or two weeks ago to assist in getting this bill out of the Committee on Counties. Therefore, it would not appear that there would be a quarrel between the County Commissioners and the Poor Directors of the county of Allegheny.

Therefore I ask you to vote "aye" on this bill.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

SENATE MESSAGE

AMENDED SENATE BILL RECALLED FROM THE GOVERNOR RETURNED FOR CONCURRENCE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, presented for concurrence bill numbered and entitled as follows:

SENATE BILL No. 158.

An Act to amend section six, as amended, and section eight of an act approved the twelfth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and thirteen (P. L. 719), entitled "An act regulating certain political parties; providing for and regulating the nomination of candidates of such political parties for certain public offices, the election of delegates and alternate delegates to National party conventions, and of certain party officers, including State committeemen; a method whereby electors of such political parties may express their choice of candidates for the office of President of the United States; and the payment by the several counties, and their reimbursement by the State, of the expenses of the same; authorizing the State committee of a political party to make, and to alter, amend, and revoke, rules; and providing penalties for the violation of the provisions of this act, and for the punishment of certain offenses provided for herein; and repealing inconsistent legislation"; prohibiting persons from being candidates for more than one party nomination.

Said bill having been recalled from the Governor for amendment, the vote had on final passage and third reading reconsidered in the Senate and the bill amended, in which amendments the concurrence of the House of Representatives is requested.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the amendments.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend title, page 2, line 2 by striking out after the syllable "hibiting" the word "persons" and inserting in lieu thereof the words "candidates for certain offices"; also by inserting after the word "nomination" in the last line of the title the words "and requiring candidates' affidavits from candidates for additional offices"

MOTION TO MAKE SPECIAL ORDER

Mr. RHODES. Mr. Speaker, I move that this matter be deferred until tomorrow morning at 12.00 when it shall be made a special order of business.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, under the order of the day a motion fixing a special order of business is not in order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman is informed that the order of the day has been completed, and the motion is in order.

ADJOURNMENT

Mr. FLYNN. Mr. Speaker, I move that this House do now adjourn until tomorrow morning, Thursday, April 20, 1933, at 10.00 o'clock.

The motion was agreed to, and (at 12.06 A. M.) the House adjourned until Thursday, April 20, 1933, at 10.00 o'clock A. M.

COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA

Legislative Journal.

Session 1933 — 130th of the General Assembly

Vol. 15 — HARRISBURG, PA., THURSDAY, APRIL 20, 1933 — No. 52

SENATE

THURSDAY, April 20, 1933

The Senate met at 10 o'clock A. M.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Edward C. Shannon) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. George P. Donehoo, offered the following prayer:

Thou Almighty and Eternal God, may we hear Thee speaking to us as Thou didst speak in Thy Word, "Be still and know that I am God," and that amid the storms and stress of life we may hear Thy Word speaking above the clamor of this world. We also read in Thy Word of Truth that "He that sitteth in the heavens shall laugh." God grant that we may not have the Infinite and Eternal Mind of this universe laugh at the childishness of many of the things which we are doing which are for today and tomorrow will be forgotten. Abide with us and keep us as individual men, and may we keep our individuality notwithstanding all the efforts of this age and the craziness of these times to swallow us up in the mechanical grind of the business of life or anything else. We ask Thy blessing upon all of us this week as we go to our homes to find rest. We ask it in Thy Name. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present, the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. MANSFIELD, the further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

PETITION

FAVORING OLD AGE PENSIONS

The Chair cleared his table and laid before the Senate petition from the Presbytery of Northumberland favoring old age pensions.

Which was referred to the Committee on Pensions and Gratuities.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE

Mr. SCOTT asked and obtained leave of absence for the Senator from Cumberland, Mr. Prince.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor of the Commonwealth, which was read as follows:

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, April 19, 1933.

To the Honorable, the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

The two subjects before the General Assembly in which the people of Pennsylvania are most vitally interested are relief for the unemployed and relief for the local taxpayer, as I pointed out at the opening of the session.

As to relief for the unemployed, something has been done for April and May, but nothing beyond that time. As to relief for the local taxpayer, nothing has been done at all.

We are nearing the end of the sixteenth week of this session. It seems to me, therefore, highly necessary that we should take stock of the situation as it affects relief for the unemployed and the local taxpayer.

It is equally necessary to take stock of what remains to be done before the present session will have performed its duty to the people of Pennsylvania.

RELIEF FOR THE UNEMPLOYED

When you convened I advised you that the least amount which you could safely appropriate and raise for relief was $20,000,000. The rapidly increasing demand for relief and the fact that we are now spending at the rate of almost $100,000,000 a year for food alone, has made it clear that additional funds must be provided.

If the Federal Government will continue as in the past to supply not less than half of our relief funds, we are required to provide in round numbers $50,000,000 to take care of relief needs for the next twelve months.

Of this amount $25,000,000 can be provided through a bond issue, which has passed two sessions of the General Assembly and will be voted upon by the people next fall.

When this session began I point out a way to raise $20,000,000 for relief without new taxes. Bills were accordingly introduced to achieve this result. Not one of them has even been reported out of committee.

For your convenience I present a list of these bills, of the committees where they lie, and of the amount of relief which would be provided if they were passed:

House Bill 21 and House Bill 1059 each provides for the collection of the four mill personal property tax by the Department of Revenue, guarantees to the counties as much as they have been collecting themselves, and divides the rest between the counties and the State. House Bill 21 is in the Committee on Counties. House Bill 1059 is in the Committee on Ways and Means. Either bill, if passed, would provide the State during the next biennium with $13,000,000

House Bill No. 1570 equalizes taxes on foreign corporations so that they would pay substantially the equivalent of the capital stock tax imposed on domestic corporations. This bill is in the Committee on Ways and Means. If passed it would provide the State during the next biennium with $3,000,000.

House Bill 19 provides for collecting the mercantile tax directly by the Department of Revenue. This bill is in the Committee on Ways and Means. If passed it would produce for the State during the next biennium in economies and greater collections, $1,700,000.

House Bill 1330 authorizes the Department of Revenue to collect all inheritance taxes directly. It is in the Committee on Ways and Means. It passed it would produce for the State during the next biennium in economies and greater collections, $2,300,000. Total, $20,000,000.

I have repeatedly announced that I would not insist on my plan but would accept any other reasonable plan which did not involve new taxes or the pillaging of the Motor License Fund.

The only substitutes which have been proposed are:

1. Further to reduce State expenditures below the $60,000,000 of savings incorporated in the budget. Such reductions cannot be made without hurting the State Government. Nevertheless, I have agreed to cooperate with the Legislature in making additional reductions of $6,000,000. A number of the bills required for this purpose have been passed. Others have not.

2. A tax on beer. At first the Administration suggested a tax at the rate of one cent per pint, or $2.48 per barrel. This, it was estimated would produce a revenue of $15,000,000 for the biennium. The beer lobby contended that this tax would prevent the sale of a five cent glass of beer, and demanded that the rate of tax be cut in half. The beer lobby has since blocked the passage of any valid legislation on this subject.

At the rate of $2.48 a barrel the State is losing at least $20,000 every day. At the rate of $1.24 per barrel the loss is at least $10,000 daily.

A careful check-up shows that five cent beer is very scarce. The prevailing price is ten cents a glass. At ten cents a glass beer can easily stand a State tax of $2.48 per barrel, in addition to the Federal tax of $5.00 per barrel. The beer tax bill is House Bill No. 2096. It is pickeled in the Committee on Ways and Means.

A bond issue for $25,000,000 for State expenses has passed two sessions. The people will vote upon it this fall. It was agreed between the leaders of the General Assembly and the Reconstruction Finance Corporation that this bond issue should be devoted to relief. But no bill to that effect was introduced until Monday of this week.

This bill—Senate Bill 1351—must be passed before the session adjourns if relief is to be provided without new taxation, and if the people are to know what they are voting for when the bond issue comes before them.

The net result in relief to date is the passage of appropriations of $7,000,000 for April and May under a promise from the leaders to raise the money required to meet it, but with no provision actually made to do so.

No funds whatever have been raised for unemployment relief after June 1st. Unless further steps are taken the unemployed will begin to starve within six weeks from today. And if they starve they cannot be expected to starve quietly.

RELIEF FOR THE LOCAL REAL ESTATE TAXPAYER

Thus far nothing whatever has been done for the relief of local taxpayers and especially the local real estate taxpayers. There has been much talk about reductions in State expenditures. But reductions in State expenditures have no bearing whatever on this question.

Not a single penny from any real estate tax goes to the State. Every cent of real estate tax goes to counties, cities, boroughs, townships, school districts, and poor districts.

At the beginning of this session I pointed out how the General Assembly could and should relieve local real estate taxpayers in the following ways:

By the State taking over the remaining 53,000 miles of second class township roads.

The bill to do so is Senate Bill 541. It has not passed the Senate and has not come before the House.

The saving to local taxpayers in two years would be $18,000,000.

To collect the personal property tax through the Department of revenue, as already outlined. The saving to local real estate taxpayers in two years would be $13,000,000

To put all poor districts on a county unit basis. House bill 1396 for this purpose is still in the Committee on Counties. It would save local real estate taxpayers in two years at least $4,000,000.

By reducing the number of third and fourth class school districts from more than 2,600 to not more than 500. This proposal was embodied in the School Code—House Bill No. 690. It has not been reported out of committee.

The saving to local real estate taxpayers in two years would be $6,300,000.

To suspend temporarily the automatic increase in teachers' salaries and enabling local school boards to reduce such salaries not more than 10% when the boards are financially unable to continue on the present basis.

This would save local taxpayers in two years $24,000,000.

No bill for this purpose has yet reached my desk.

The total savings under this plan to local real estate tax payers in two years would amount to $65,300,000.

In closing, I repeat that relief for the unemployed has been provided for two months only, but for local real estate taxpayers, the hardest hit of all taxpayers in this Commonwealth, not one cent of relief has been provided.

This amazing neglect of the folks back home does not lie at my door.

GIFFORD PINCHOT.

An Act defining and regulating the practice of photography providing for the licensing and registration of persons to carry on the practice of photography and the promulgation and enforcement of rules for the conduct thereof by the Department of Public Instruction.

Also from the Committee on Education, re-reported as amended, Senate Bill No. 146, entitled:

An Act to amend section one thousand one hundred and twenty-six of the act approved the eighteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and eleven (P. L. 309), entitled "An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, together with the provisions by which it shall be administered, and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof; providing revenue to establish and maintain the same, and the method of collecting such revenue, and repealing all laws, general, special or local, or any parts thereof, that are or may be inconsistent therewith;" as amended, vesting discretion in the school directors of certain counties with respect to the appointment of an assistant county superintendent.

Mr. EALY, from the Committee on Judiciary General, reported as committed the following Resolution:

The petition of the undersigned, electors and taxpayers, of the Township of Loyalsock, County of Lycoming, Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, respectfully represents:

1. That one W. W. Scott was duly elected by the voters of Loyalsock Township, County of Lycoming, as a Justice of the Peace at the municipal election held in November, 1931.
2. That the said W. W. Scott was duly commissioned by His Excellency, the Governor, as a Justice of the Peace for the Township of Loyalsock, County of Lycoming, for a term of six years commencing the first Monday of January, 1932.
3. That on or about July 3, 1932, the said W. W. Scott disappeared from his home and community and has since failed to return thereto, nor are his present whereabouts known to the undersigned, your petitioners, nor to the other residents of the community.
4. That your petitioners verily believe that the said W. W. Scott is a fugitive from justice by virtue of certain warrants issued for his arrest, of which the said W. W. Scott had knowledge.
5. That your petitioners verily believe that the said W. W. Scott has no intention of returning to the community or of resuming his duties and authority as a Justice of the Peace.
6. That by reason of the absence of the said W. W. Scott, the citizens of the Township of Loyalsock are deprived of the services of a Justice of the Peace to their great inconvenience.

Wherefore, the undersigned respectfully petition your Honorable body to address the Governor as provided by the Constitution of Pennsylvania for the removal from office of the said W. W. Scott to the end that a vacancy may be declared to exist in the office of Justice of the Peace in Loyalsock now held by the said W. W. Scott, and a successor be appointed as provided by law.

And they will ever pray, etc.,

RESOLUTION RELATIVE TO DECLARING VACANT THE OFFICE OF JUSTICE-OF-THE-PEACE OF LOYALSOCK TOWNSHIP, COUNTY OF LYCOMING

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer a resolution at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, I am directed by the Committee on Judiciary General to offer a resolution which, perhaps, requires a word of explanation. Some weeks ago the Senator from Lycoming, Mr. Sones, presented to the Senate a petition of sundry citizens of Loyalsock Township, in that county, setting forth that one W. W. Scott had disappeared from his home, that the petitioners believed he was a fugitive from justice, and petitioning the Senate to address the Governor asking him to declare a vacancy in this office of justice of the peace and appoint a new justice. This petition was referred to the Committee on Judiciary General, which adopted the resolution which I now submit; and this resolution, under the Constitution of Pennsylvania, appears to require a two-thirds vote of the Senate.

Mr. EALY, on behalf of the Committee on Judiciary General, offered the following resolution, which was twice read:

Whereas, one W. W. Scott was duly elected by the voters of Loyalsock Township, County of Lycoming, as a justice of the peace at the municipal election held in November, 1931, and was commissioned as a justice of the peace for said township for a term of six years commencing the first Monday in January, 1932; and

Whereas, it appears that on or about July 3, 1932, the said W. W. Scott disappeared from his home and community, and has since failed to return thereto, and his present whereabouts is unknown, as appears from affidavits filed with the Senate and referred to the Committee on Judiciary General; and

Whereas, said affidavits allege that the petitioners believe that said W. W. Scott to be a fugitive from justice because certain warrants for his arrest had been issued; and

Whereas, the citizens of Loyalsock Township are thus deprived of the service of a justice of the peace, to which they are legally entitled; and

Whereas, Section 4, Article 7, of the Constitution provides that all officers elected by the people, except Governor, Lieutenant Governor, members of the General Assmbly and judges of the courts or record learned in the law, shall be removed by the Governor for reasonable cause after due notice and full hearing on the address of two-thirds of the Senate; therefore be it

Resolved, that the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in accordance with Section 4, Article 7 of the Constitution, and for the reasons cited in the preamble hereof, do hereby address the Governor to remove from the office of justice of the peace for the Township of Loyalsock, County of Lycoming, the said W. W. Scott, who was elected to said office at the municipal election in the year 1931 and duly qualified for said office.

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—38

Batchelor,	Fay,	McClure,	Snyder,
Baumer,	Gelder,	Miller,	Sones,
Bell,	Graff,	Norton,	Sordoni,
Bennett,	Harris,	Owlett,	Staudenmeier,
Boyd,	Harvey,	Parkinson,	Thompson,
Brandt,	Homsher,	Pethick,	Trainer,
Chapman,	Howell,	Reed,	Williamson,
Clark,	Krause,	Rice,	Woodward,
Coyne,	Lanius,	Scott,	Ziesenheim,
Ealy,	Mansfield,

NAYS—0

Two-thirds of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

The PRESIDENT. The resolution will be certified to the Governor, together with a copy of the original petition.
